

Forums/Sites May Go Down Anytime Now - Ritual Schedule Extended to 9th of January

We have been informed by an associate company that relates to our sites, that they received a physical intimidation and they are being forced now to do migration of all their infrastructure [probably were asked to shut down customers?]. They were hit with a notice out of nowhere about content and they are experiencing issues. On the Eve of the 31st...

The time of downtime is unspecified. We'll work so that it is as little as possible. A notice has been received on that end, and we're already preparing for it.

I do not have time to be more specific, as the Forums/JoS related sites may go down any second now. Do not worry - everything will be back up, and first and foremost the forum, in the same URL you see here: <http://www.ancient-forums.com>.

Apparently they picked the Eve of the Year, thinking that some asshole is taking vacations. We never take any vacations when it comes to the JoS and taking care of it and minding its future. I know I don't.

This is to inform anyone before an actual event of us being plugged off. We'll return, so don't worry.

Due to the political situation, the enemy simply wants sites like us to no longer exist at all.

The Reverse Torah Ritual Schedule is extended from January 3rd to January 9th - one more addition will be the Reverse Torah Ritual to Own Nations.

From January 3 to January 9, we do these: FRTR + Tetragrammaton RTR, Wealth for Satanists Ritual, Race Awakening Ritual, Restoring Right To Own Nations Ritual
