Greetings to all of our Satanic Warriors,

In this schedule, we will be making sure to lay the framework for further and stronger attacks. The enemy has been getting it with the Final RTR, and this is very good news. It will do what it promises by erasing everything. Their reactions are observable to this. The enemy reacts because they are damaged.

Those who understand, do also know, that unlike many Gentiles who scoff it out, and pretend "none of this spiritual stuff matters", jews take all of this very seriously. Sadly so, jews, especially those who are "In the Know" do take this far more seriously than literally billions of Gentiles.

Lately, everyone must have observed, there is an increasing reaction by the enemy. That is normal, and they are going to do this regardless of everything. More-so than ever, right now, where their influence is dwindling. The enemy is also carefully and meticulously reading and informing themselves of the plans of their enemies, for reasons that are obvious.

In order to finish off specific things that are to cause major and breaking damage to the enemy, we have to make sure that everything we have done before, is fortified, running, and is in effect. We will focus on what is important for right now and holds the most influence and power. Some of it has to do with current, ongoing events, which are very serious, such as the US elections.

The enemy does the same thing every so often, re-doing things they have done before, to lay framework for things they plan to do in the future. We have been doing this heavily before. The more open the line, and as the FRTR is applied, this will make all of this easier.

The enemy has also fought to adjust to the methods and techniques that have been used. Reason being that many people do not understand the importance of silence, or general tactics of war, one doesn't have to be brief. It would be better if some people understood what silence meant.

While the enemy wages war intelligently, and for a very long period of time, some people here complain they aren't gone in 2 years. The enemy has been doing their repeated attacks for 100, 200, or 2000 years. Effects observed within as low as 2 years, should make one elated if anything else. And motivated to keep going.

Unlike many Gentiles who sit their asses all day watching TV and doing all sorts of worthless things and only these [fun is of course part of Satanism, but we can't become slaves like these people are] there are people of the enemy who are very serious in their pursuits, in curses, and in doing whatever is necessary to subvert anything. Some of them go as far as to sit for hours on end daily just to curse everyone. They understand the matter of all this is very important.

As many of you here know the full story about them, one must take it - within their limits and capacities – seriously.

Below there is a New Schedule that is being posted. During this schedule we will "re-patch" some important RTR's that have been done before, while opening and closing with the Final RTR.

This schedule will "fill in" any potential loop-holes or re-do any rituals that have been bound and/or removed by the enemy, so we can move on to more powerful things with a firm foundation and knowing certainly everything is at place.

Lastly, as the enemy lurks in the forums, and they read anything, everyone must practice smarts and silence. Many of you can see things and can understand things, be it for the warfare, or because you do the Rituals and you see specific things. Sharing these with the enemy can be highly problematic. This is all that should be stated here.

It is important also to read below because this foundation will be most important for the advanced Rituals that will come after this rehash is completed.

How to do the FRTR in a more advanced manner to comply with the schedule requirements:

First of all, all of this, is to be done in regards to the already set TIMER for the RTR's. Every 2 hours, hundreds or thousands of us, will launch an attack at the same time. The timer guarantees this is done in a wave.

Before doing the Rituals given here, it would be nice, to do these either at the end of your meditation session, or after raising your energy by doing meditation, such as the SATANAS meditation, Yoga, or Breathing Exercises.

Important in this is that one must have the INTENTION, that the First Final RTR "opens up" for the RTR's that will be applied later.

The last FRTR, should have the INTENTION, that this "seals the deal".

Do not take the above simply. It is very important in principle.

The last FRTR, should have the INTENTION, that this "seals the deal". Due to the nature of the Final Torah Ritual, your intentions matter a lot while doing it. Another situation that is important, is your VISUALIZATION, and your FEELINGS after the ritual.

If necessary, or if you can't focus your mind in this way, you can affirm, before you do the first Final RTR, you must focus your mind in the intention that it "opens the way" for the rituals that will be doing else - that aside wrecking the usual havoc and destroying the enemy. The last FRTR, "Closes the way".

In the first ritual, you must see these letters decaying, dying, and their influence dwindling - which results in the enemy being defenceless against the attack you will heap on them later. Then, we will "re-patch" the RTR's we have done before, powerfully so. The MEANING and INTENTION of these rituals has to be strongly intended - be creative here with visualization. An example here is, you imagine the earth is resonating with Satan's Sigil and what we just affirmed in the second Ritual.

After this, In the last ritual Final Reverse Ritual, you must feel it strongly, that when you blot out the letters, these influences dwindle, die off, and disappear entirely.

In the SECOND FRTR, after this is done, you must feel it strongly and intend it [and you can include any visualization that you want here] that the enemy is completely overtaken by what one just did, or in short, the other RTR's. After this is done, one closes their mind completely, and you can go do whatever physical you want.

Just doing these robotically and without caring and/or having anger, while still effective, could be more effective. Emotions such as HATE, or focus and intention can expand on this power, and knowing with deep reassurance, you are striking them really hard. Visualization, affirmation, and focusing the mind is necessary. Those who are past intermediary level should already know these and apply these.

Overall the above is simple. Everyone here has to adjust to this, as in the future, even heavier artillery that will be used, will depend on what everyone applies right now. When the above is done sufficiently, you will notice that your FRTR has far more influence than by "simply doing it".

The Rituals here must be done in that order, for maximum effectiveness. These are as always planetarily aligned for maximum potency. With the enemy weakened by the FRTR, these should fly in like rockets.

Lastly, the MOST important factor is that you adjust yourself in doing visualization and intention for the Ritual, because the next upcoming very serious Rituals [more advanced than these], will heavily depend on this ability. Everyone has to become strongly competent in this NOW.

After this schedule is over, there will be a resting/blessing period for everyone involved, before other more important things.

IMPORTANT NOTES:

*The Rituals below can be spaced in your day. For example, FRTR in the morning, the other RTR's in midday, FRTR closing everything in the Afternoon. The best way to do this, however, is in one sitting instead.

*The Non Final RTR's need to be done only once everyday, and it should suffice.

*IMPORTANT: IF ONE DOES NOT HAVE TIME FOR ALL THE RITUALS, ONE MUST PRIORITIZE THE FINAL RTR ONLY.

*If you want to add extra repetitions, you should add them to the Final RTR instead. For example, x18 Final RTR, then once all the other rituals, then x18 Final RTR.

*If you feel overburdened by the many repetitions, all repetitions can be as low as 3 for everything. For example, all letters reversed 3 times, affirmations all done 3 times, and repeated verses reversed 3 times. This is the bare minimum for this. One can also repeat this procedure through their day, such as for example, 3 times.
