

The Divine Purpose & Spiritual Warfare Schedule - April 17th to May 1st

Over the years my striving for practicality, helping others, and essentially fulfilling one's purpose towards Satan's people, can have an effect on someone, but also beautiful outcomes. There is growth, and there is power.

The enemy knows your value, my value, Satan's Power, and the power of this place. They see the potential that you do not, and I have seen it flashed in my mind as a revelation from Satan.

They have been closely watching this place from infancy, rising from an irrelevant place, against all odds, straight into their face. It keeps going. Imposters have come and went, and the grain has been fined many times over here, but it still keeps going and going.

In their position, one would be worried highly. And they have every right to be worried.

Looking back the fact that I made this happen, organized a spiritual army, and the fact that we are here and have much more ahead of us [the past will look small in comparison] shows me this clearly: There is a Divine Satanic Mission for this place, encompassing us all.

Those before me served the same Divine Purpose, but the amount of which they were filled with it, was ranging. Every soul of Satan has access to the great well, the extent of reception is up to someone.

Everyone feels the well that pulls the souls that belong to Satan like flower towards the light. One has to choose to receive.

It cannot be toppled, it cannot be conquered. I've observed this through numerous occasions. Petty idiots and people who don't even understand what is going on. I've seen a lot of petty and small people here. They vanished, others, were quickly disposed. They believe it was "themselves" doing that, but the Gods have ways.

They were never in contact with the Great Power of the Gods, or Satan. They shrunk and shrunk like rotting figs...

Few I have seen however become Champions in this place. As Satan states clearly in the Al Jilwah, he has the control of the leaders and the generations of people. Satan has weeded out much dross from this place, and every time, it arises higher like a rectified diamond with less and less defects.

Others were led where few can even imagine. Their loyalty has been rewarded. "With Rewards that I alone know".

Over the years I also had to deal, and in effect associate, with many lesser than's, weaklings, and in particular people who have had nothing internal to offer. Satanism before HPS Maxine was a mental asylum of jews, and before me, a weak irrelevant force. The enemy only came to our place of dwelling to slander us, infiltrate, and so on.

Satan was given no respect. The same old methods and claims about Satan were always present. The blind lead the blind, and the botched increased exponentially the botched. The curse of the enemy was manifest on Satan's dwelling.

Praised be and glory to those who have been removing these, absolving our lord like Enki was healed from his illness, for you will be partakers and receivers of power, in his great gathering.

Generally, I retain lower tones because primarily I believe in power, and not in idle things. Power is felt, and not spoken. What all my enemies have to say about the situation is that they have all failed and been subverted, up until this day. They learn the harder the more they try to go against this place.

I've held my Thermopylae like Leonidas, and I have drove them all down to the soil, with my beloved Spartans.

The enemy despite of their grandiosity, is of poor spirit, and even poorer mind. Their poor mind and understanding cannot fathom how the will of the Vatican, the Rabbinate, some kosher idiots, many traitors, and so many others, has simply been defeated by the will of one man, or a group as small as this.

They are losing their mind and their patience that this is even happening. Desperation, losers and failures, running from all sides. Satan is Rising and what will they do?

Satan has been first for me and I have allowed him to dwell in my minds and thoughts. He is the Prince of Power. Many have come "across" this place, but few have hung like Odin in the tree of self sacrifice to see the ultimate power that beckons on the other end of the line. I have.

This allowed me to step on all those irrelevant ones, empower all the relevant ones, uplift people, keep the motivated and those who want to harm us, were always foiled and kept at bay. I have received the mission from Satan in my own hands, because I held His Name firmly up, while many others were not up to do that.

HPS Maxine has been very humble through all of this, and possibly so, more than necessary. She wanted to appeal more to the Gods than she wanted to appeal to humans, as she was drawn closer to them than she was drawn towards "humans". I couldn't fathom on her side why she had to be that humble, her humbleness did also humble me.

Indeed, I believed this was a mistake, she spoke the loudest on her silence and her works. When jews will write in their cursed books about their greatest sores, she has rose to that Pantheon. We are to reassure this list keeps growing!

We will enter an era of total warfare now, and it's manifesting physically. Decades in the work, the enemy is working to remove freedoms and oppress mankind, destroy our culture, and just shrink humanity. The Rituals that will be given henceforth, will improve all your lives. Additionally, they will revitalize and rewire what has been broken before, and the "Shattered Vessel" of Satan, which are many of the people here.

Many people do not understand what power is or how much power Satan and the Gods possess. One most studied Rabbi, was describing the "Spirit of Egypt" in a material I undug. The material explained how Pharaohs and other advanced souls from the past, had power to "Move the Earth". Hitler was an example like this.

If one wants to rise to this level, "we have also moved the earth", with adherence and group practice, we can do it. Others may not want to rise to higher levels of power, and will ignore this. Take this once in a lifetime opportunity and join the warfare right now, before it is too late.

HPS Maxine has opened the tombstone for the enemy, and that opened with the Final RTR. People will not understand her value right now, but will in the future. One has to build on the previous achievements, and we have a way to go in accomplishment of even more power.

We are nowhere to where we will be in the future. One might have a grasp of it, but not everyone sees this as clearly as I do. We will get there.

The material the enemy has published, their exposure, major mistakes, and other failures, will keep stacking as they go. As their power increases on the material level, and their oppression increases, so will their spiritual power dwindle, and their foundation will collapse. And in the end, they will fall.

They will not believe that this even happened, but it is going to happen. And it will happen from the Souls Satan has appointed for this task. The overwhelming power of Egypt, Assyria, Babylon, Greece and Sumer will be upon them, and they will experience their end. Cush and Canaan will crush them, Rome will hit them, and the Dragons of Europe will descend on them...

These only to name a few that the jews always obsess about. The metaphor here is spiritual, for all of us.

For now, until this schedule is concluded, we will remain on the already known rituals. After this, there will be publication of other things, which will be of extreme importance. Everyone will be updated.

Now, as everyone can understand, the situation demands for those Rituals below. However due to the fact most people cannot see higher levels yet [but can have premonitions of these], these are not only viable physically, but astrally.

There are many non-events and false events that are only there to manufacture fake problems and nonsense attention, to waste energy. It is advisable people do not engage into this taunting. Remain focused and stay on line with the general superpower of the group instead, for maximum impact.

It is my desire that all my followers unite in a bond of unity, lest those who are without prevail against them.

Our order advances higher, we become stronger, ever more powerful.

There are also those who are invited to join, by any other organization, people who may be individuals, or anyone else who is in understanding of the high importance of this task, to participate in the annihilation of the enemy.

We have a duty towards this world to uphold and the tyranny of the enemy must not pass, but come to pass.

HAIL SATAN!!!

Below the Schedule:

17 to 1st of May. FRTR, Communications, Race Awakening Ritual

Important Notes:

The above schedule is very simple. After this, we will allow a period for resonate and move on to other things shortly after.

April 20th is to be put special attention on this schedule. Specific higher and advanced individuals will be doing specific works on this date from our side. Even other Pagans are joining on this date, and that is positive.

The power date of Hitler's birthday is extremely important and should be utilized as a day of maximum force.
