

Dealing With the Alien Attacks of the Enemy

Greetings to all our People and Satanic Comrades.

I am writing this for people struggling with attacks by the enemy aliens. The worthless, cattle joe's and dumbasses are the ones who always deny their existence, well, because they are afraid. They WISH it wasn't the case, so they can live their sorry lives thinking they are entirely "Free Humans". Powers that be, governments, and people like us here who spiritually advance and are a threat to them, are all very aware of their existence. We Satanists know first-hand.

It's BEST to not even think about them, or give one damn, and tune them out, but I write this post for if they persist. The best for you is to always remain protected and attentive and never have to face any such drama.

Additionally, if you spill your milk or by accident destroy your pancakes, that is not necessarily the aliens, or some form from outer space. A lot of people compensate for their own weakness and say it's always someone else. Do not transfer this weakling thought into Satanism, when it's not necessary. Attacks from the enemy are serious. Then, we have Karma and negativity people draw to themselves, which again, is nobody else's fault.

With the above being stated, let's get into the serious stuff now.

When one's spiritual sight opens, and when one makes a struggle to advance, the filled with "Love" masters of xianity and all the other filthy alien programs show their alien self. Then one understands their wills pretty clear, that is to kill and destroy. However, we have Satan, and as thus, few of their things can really get to us.

That is in the given, that we do our own end of the deal in meditation and protection. People who advance but don't protect themselves, sooner or later, will come to the attention of the wrong beings, and either be forced to succumb, or be made into a bad ending.

Quite a few people are born with psychic powers here and there, even if the enemy has tried to systematically murder the 'witches'. Few to none people know how to use, protect and procure these powers however, and therefore, the enemy enslaves them.

Now, if you find them crossing you, you will know, as they are obsessive, compulsive and lowlifes. These mainly go after the people who are a major threat for some reason. These aliens believe the earth belongs to them, and they want to race-mix humanity to make it into a big, giant, cattle farm, where they can reign supreme.

Why the enemy doesn't attack many cattle and normal people? Simply: energy waste. They have already been defeated and are already blind.

Gifted spiritual humans are a threat to them, so they try to get them into drugs, or get them hooked in their own side before they can even make a choice. Drug use is extremely pushed by aliens, as it makes people docile, dependent, and easily controlled. You cut their weed and you see them take twists like spazzers. Yea, very (((free))) people, indeed.

The main attack the enemy does is incessant telepathy. You may for example get negative, compulsive thoughts that are damning, in your head. If you encounter this, try at first to tune it out. Tuning a good and most important thing you can do. Then, you can do an RTR and curse them. If every time they attack you, you just curse them back, then at some point it becomes a waste of their time, but NOT of yours because you damage them. The 72 Names RTR attacks their hive conduit of energy directly, something which may piss off these slavers.

Normally, they quit after a while. Of course, cleaning your aura and meditation plus STRONG protection is mandatory. For those more open, you may see them, especially when in a deep trance and meditating.

The Satanic Blue fire, and vibrating SATANAS or SATAN, actually ties into the consciousness of Satan Himself. This is a virulent pesticide for the enemy, as it drives them away on its own most of the time. At the worst circumstance, you just have to keep and keep projecting them where you see them.

If you are attacked in your sleep, you will more than likely be aware of it. Try to memorize Satan's name and call it in your sleep and the attack will end. Also, try to move your body as it has been written before, or your astral hands and legs. If you do this, you will more than likely wake up. When you are up, do some cleaning, and also, protection. It's better to not sleep immediately without doing such.

When your bio-electricity is at odds or low, your aura becomes less thick and more easily penetrated by just about anything. Therefore, your normal daily meditation is one of the best ways to handle this and more than likely not have to worry about things.

On one hand, without Satan's help, Humanity doesn't stand one snowflake's chance in "Hell" to survive these aliens or go against their plan. On the other hand, humans are strong enough to ward off and keep these pests away from our civilization, that is, if we apply Satan's knowledge. Then, one can even surpass these pests and get on an even higher level. The enemy agents and the enemy religions also, because of the mass cattle that is siphoned, is an antenna of attraction for these parasites.

Satan doesn't want his followers to meditate for no reason. The meditations and yoga, and maintaining a positive mindset, do actually keep humanity away of calamities and the dimensions in the astral that this pest exists. Therefore, we don't experience it either if we meditate and push it away. However, beings like the jews opened the doors wide and open for their 'chosen' friends with whom they have a 'covenant'.

Now they 'pray' and with their kike programs, invite all this death and misery on the planet. This is why the New World order, or (((prophecies))) of mass death, annihilation and destruction take place. It's just the expressed will of these alien hives, and these parasitic alien races of the jews and their lackey lapdogs.

Islam is a major antenna of attraction- notice all this cattle bowing to this rock of stone that amasses energy for the enemy. "Allah" is quite an attention whore, considering it is a "God". Why? Because well it's an alien mass and nothing else but astral feces and garbage.

Therefore, the more followers the enemy loses, the more their influence will dwindle and get reduced, and they will leave humanity alone. Ideally, human civilization MUST advance past a point where these aliens are understood and fought directly, but the enemy forces race mixing and civilization wrecking so this will never happen.

Lastly- STOP focusing or being afraid of the enemy. Start being FOCUSED and CONFIDENT in Satan. Draw Satan and the Gods influence close to you. What you think, is what you attract. Maintain thoughts of the Gods, holy thoughts, and banish the enemy with the RTR's and other warfare, rather than 'dwell' and 'worry'. This does them the most harm.

Meditation, protection, keeping a positive mindset, learning to disassociate attacks from personal karma/misfortunes, bravery, total conviction in your potential and in Satan, and dwelling on SATAN instead of the enemy, are the best solutions for dealing with any pest above or below.
