

Marijuana and Hallucinogenic Drugs

Many are asking this question and then it's time to answer this, thoroughly and fully. Many are giving plethora of opinions, as to if one should use Hallucinogenic drugs, if they are harmful or not and so forth. Many are answering that they put holes in your aura and weaken your soul, which I will explain how and why this happens.

The Drug culture, has and always has been of the kikes. The whole cartel of the drugs is for the most part, in jewish control. One can easily see this in the Opium wars in the middle east, in Iraq, in the numerous Colombian cartels and on the 'gangsta' culture they pass down to people. [Rapper "Drake", Jew, Rapper "Lil Wayne", Jew and the list goes on not only they racially infiltrate the Black Race as they do to all Gentile races but there is more to this, record labels owned by jews and so forth. They create a judaic reality for the Blacks to live and turn them against both one another but other Gentiles as well] There is the claim around that "The Ancients did Marijuana" and other mixtures of "Drugs". Well, they didn't snort this, they didn't create this in nasty labs, they didn't mix these drugs with very dangerous and toxic substances. At best, the infamous Marijuana would be consumed orally, as part of another solution or not at all. This mixture was in no way necessary for spiritual advancement and it wasn't used for any prolonged periods of time. At best, it was like a traditional drink or something for the Hindus, which was taken orally, by other very nutritious plants, in exceptionally low qualities.

Every drug seems to hit a different area of the brain. There are many types of drugs and I can tell you one thing, they are all unnecessary and above all, all their highs are weak. I have had known people who stoned their brains out of themselves. I will relate my experience with these people. I have known some in person, others I have studied from afar, others I simply have seen in documentaries and so forth, or from "in the past I was a junkie reports". Drugs are a gateway for the weak and the stupid. They are only the result of the backlash of xianity. People are left with no spirit, so they consume something just to simply experience some sort of chemo-imbalance into their brains and they regard this as spiritual experience.

This can be done because they are bored, because it's a substitute of needed spiritual experiences, or because one is mentally victimized to the jews and wants to subconsciously advance their agenda and make them rich, because one is falsely believing it will benefit them and so forth. You pay for your own demise in a very big price, you fill the pockets of the jews and of course, destroy yourself in the process. It's the 'reverse spiritual' way of the enemy. On one hand the kikes and their 'mainstream' religions provide absolutely no spiritual experiences, on the other they prohibit everyone from having spiritual experiences and a sound soul and on the other, they promote drugs as a quick fix for one's mental states. But as with everything jewish, this is just another lie; a lie that fills the big jewish pocket and in the meantime, destroys and enslaves Gentiles in ways that most cannot even escape. Thanks to jewsus, people are always running away from their own soul.

Drugs are for the weak. For instance, one cannot control their mind and relax, so they smoke weed to relax. One cannot have confidence on their own because their soul is debilitated, they snort cocaine. One has never felt any love from any being, they go and inject some heroin. The whole "highs" last for 5-30 minutes [at best 30 and this is reduced by usage] and for 10-50$ or more a hit. Your brain in response to the drug releases some chemicals, you feel just the result of something in a very degenerate sense, you poison yourself, you pay the jew, you become its slave and then, you destroy yourself.

I have had many junkies told me about their so called 'experiences'. From frying their brains and paying so much for some minutes of pleasure, I do Satanic meditations and I experience highs they cannot experience with any drug. All this is under my total control, follows me and improves my life. Without paying a buck to any jew. And while advancing myself as a personality, as a character, as a mind and above all as a Soul, the health and so forth. The benefits are uncountable. The results stay with me and will stay with you for the here, the thereafter and then some more. Let alone the miracles, the knowledge that someone is really there for you, the touching of the Truth. That's what I get as a Satanist through power meditation.

These people lose it all. They lose their family, their money, their own self. They are getting destroyed for 5 minutes of feeling 'confident' and having a 'rush' of euphoria. On one hand, any advanced Satanist would laugh at that shit. On the other hand, this is horrible and shows how low humanity has fell. The jew shits and the weak eat his shit, in the form of drugs, a false religion, a false existence to be. THE GREEDY KIKES DO NOT WANT YOU TO FEEL GOOD FOR FREE.

THAT'S HOW FAR THEIR GREED GOES. THEY DO NOT EVEN WANT YOU TO HAVE A GOOD TIME OR FEEL GREAT WITHOUT PAYING THE BUCK, AND DOING SO IN A DESTRUCTIVE MANNER, THAT MAKES YOU THEIR MOST OBEDIENT BITCH AND SLAVE.

Also, any advanced Satanist can see some things with their inner vision, what happens to a drugged individual while they do their so called "high". Nothing spiritual at all. In fact, it's solely around some chemo overflowing their brain and nothing more. Their brain did not rewire, their perspective does not change, their thinking remains the same and only becomes worse, their personality degenerates, they simply lose. And for what? Something that an adept Satanist can cause in 15 seconds. Or 5 seconds. Or with absolute control of their mind, at will anytime, anyplace. This all comes with training when one advances in meditation, yoga and spirituality. That's the way it's meant to be.

What I have observed at the marijuana users. Well, all it does is actually 'calm' them down for some time, purely in a chemical sense. Half of this calm is due to the drug, the other is because they simply inhale bullshit and they lack oxygen. It just masks their anxiety of a moment, jew causes their anxiety by who knows what issues, jew takes it away with the drugs it sells...But bear on, you are dealing with kikes so you will have to pay a price tenfold of what you thought you would pay. Because their spirit 'loosens' from this, they experience some minor sense of 'calmness' which is fake. This causes the aura to loosen up as well, leaving it open to more influences. This is not calmness as in trance, but calmness as in you cannot 'tighten' up, which is involuntarily. This teaches the mind to enter a relaxed state, not by will, but by the use of the drug. Then the comedown is they come dozens of times more irritable, anxious and even more fucked than they were. They make this a habit and then the brain gets conditioned to the above state. They are basically like a dog commanded to stay on hold, lethargic and stupid, from overly being exposed to this chemo state. Some of them experience some sparks on their feint chakras and then, this can cause visions, schizophrenia, premature opening of the '3rd eye' [not in any high level, just seeing colors and shit].

The aura slightly opens and one enters a weak trance state, in control of the substance. They lacked harmony in the first place in the Soul level and that's what got them into drugs, then they are losing it every time they do that shit. The "holes in the aura" happen as parts of the body get too loosen up and areas of the brain do not function well, neither does the astral body, which also gets influenced by this 'forcing' to open up. The physical and astral bodies are connected, so this has an effect to the astral body. The 'burnout' term is not a coincidence, as this done over and over actually burns brain cells, which reduces the potency of the brain. Then you have the alcohol and the whole shitty mindset around this, the poor physical conditions. All this ties together. The whole 'love everyone' and 'allowance' shit mentalities opens them further as well, making their aura like cheese holes, and these people are absolutely easy to control and manipulate after a point through all these 'holes' in their mentality, subconscious and aura, lest one holds a pic of Bob Marley on.

Many also are doing this with their so called 'friends'. When one's astral/mental body loosens up through this fake 'relaxation', it can absorb anything from the environment. This could be any type of energy, any type of thought form, any type of invisible energy complex from other beings. And the enemy of course will use this chance to get to these stupid people, if interested in doing so. If not, they will leave their physical agent the Jew to destroy the person and all good. Weed causes 'calmness' as in mental weakness. Meditation from Satan causes calmness as in Strength and as in one is literally mentally healed, so happiness and calmness are a result of a sound body. As for Satan's view on these things, I let you figure that one out for yourself already. Satanism is about strength and fortitude, not cheating and trying to pull a fast one TOWARDS YOUR OWN FREAKING SOUL. Drugs are spiritually analogous to some weak person that never did exercise, trying to raise weights, beyond what they can. You get the fake feeling you can, you raise your weight for a moment, then your muscular structure shatters and you are left hurt. Only, that this is what happens in the Soul. And you can't become a Spiritual 'bodybuilder' by fake pills and potions, but only persistent training. This 'pulling a fast one' and 'trying to cheat reality' behavior is entirely xian in its essence. And existentially deadly and unforgivable by nature. This whole 'feel good by drugs' round and round depletes the brain of its own beneficial chemicals and of its own balance and as it's known, even destroys some areas of the brain completely. How the fuck is this filthy crap is going to help anyone spiritually in any way? Let alone other drugs destroy. When this is seriously fucked up with, then reversing this will be hard.

Satanism is about literally reforming the Soul. From whatever the point it comes to Satan, Satan will assist those willing to fix up their Souls. Past trauma will go, power will come, balance will take the lead in one's life. This will assist the body, the mind and the being to advance in a harmonious manner and without any dangers. The calmness will come when the Soul dross will clean and the unconscious will clean up from trash. It will come when one gives up this old downward spiritual that the enemy tries to make people to live. The happiness will come in knowing one's self, in meditating, in breaking a sweat in the gym and then doing some yoga to make your body feel great. Calmness and real mental tranquility, strength, confidence and all these things are for the strong. Those who have found Satan, reversed the damage from that shit and entered a New Order of Life in Satan, they know exactly what I mean by my statements. They know drugs are weak, unnecessary and cannot in any way compare to the feelings power meditation produces. In a most healthy and permanent manner.

Not for people who are living in a lie and trying to cheat against their own self. The self knows. Reality and nature do not forgive stupidity and weakness, neither you can cheat them. You can take all the opium in the world for instance, but the pain is still there. It's just masked from your conscious mind for a while. Maybe you can cheat your brain and get a fix for some minutes, while helping the jews and while they laugh at you and shit at you, but the Soul goes more and more downward towards the point of destruction. Then they will shit at your corpse because that's what they do, they savagely destroy everything they can. How could ever this be "SATANIC"? Satanism is about TRUTH!!! If one wants to lie to nature, themselves and everything around them, they may as well join xianity. And rot their own soul and self in any other way they see fit. This is all senseless escapism. For those who know about Spirituality, they know all that crap has no 'exit' door unless one wants to face reality.

As you read this xians and others are still in the same and worse condition everyday, in an endless loop of lies, in never-ending boredom and servitude, without any spiritual or future standing, without a soul, only as a physical body, not even knowing what their own feelings are, living full of fear and dread, unknowing of what comes tomorrow, dying from drugs and every other pestilence they draw at themselves and their nonexistent kike 'god' allows them to fall to, having prayers unanswered, talking to a jewish 'god' that never gave a fuck for them and murders humanity directly or indirectly, feeling alone, abandoned, helpless and destroyed. Being unable to change themselves, being at the mercy of fate for better or for worse, being stupid and slaves of the kikes their whole life. That's the gift of jewery for them all. Played upon like they do not have a life, between the jewish sides in all things, from jew to jew, until they are jew'd the fuck out of existence. Jew problem, jew solution, jew game.

If anyone is trying to escape that loop, know we are here with you, so is Satan, our Gentile Pagan God. Many of our members have successfully defeated this crap of the kikes and have rebuilt themselves stronger than ever. Do not go down that shitty road. People have come here debilitated, thanks to the enemy and their lies and years after, those who stand firm and convicted in the power of Satan transform themselves into beings far better than they ever were.

And always remember to HAIL SATAN!
