The jewish rules of living for the Goyim, summing up the jewish demands for anyone:

"So long you keep up our lies and support them, from whatever frontier, we are fine.

So long you take our "teachings" to you as truth, we are fine.

So long you believe in our fairytales of the Quran, Bible and the rest, we are fine.

So long you think in the line we have passed to you, we are fine.

So long you turn against your own people, we're fine.

So long you don't think or question anything, we are fine.

So long you remain stupid to your death and never seek to advance, or advance in any way that does threaten us, we're fine.

So long you buy our products and spend your life in foolish materialism, we're fine.

So long you remain mentally, spiritually and physically under our control, we're fine.

So long your needs, wants and dreams align with the line we have given you, we're fine.

So long you are lost in the "truths" and distractions we have made for you, we're fine.

So long you do not support Satan, or anything that is against us, we're fine.

So long you have forgotten any natural, traditional and historical way, we're fine.

So long you are against anyone else, but us, we're fine.

So long you are at the mercy of our spiritual entities and don't question them, we're fine.

So long you waste your life and you never do see anything but this "world" we have created, we're fine.

So long you do not oppose us or judge us, we're fine.

So long you react to any proof that stands against us and fight it vigorously, at your own expense and the expense of anyone else, we're fine.

So long you close your eyes willingly to what is in front of you, we're fine.

So long you think or don't think in the terms acceptable by us, we are fine.

So long you don't take any revenge even if you know what we do, we are fine.

So long you know half of the story, and this is only from us and what we said, we are fine.

So long you keep your mouth shut for anything you might know, or wonder, we are fine.

So long you don't ask for any better world, we're fine.

So long you keep and advance this world to be even worse, we are fine.

So long you do spiritual practice and support anything abrahamic, we are fine.

So long this spiritual practice leads you nowhere and you remain powerless, we are fine.

So long you torture yourself and enslave yourself, we are fine.

So long you desire nothing, we are fine.

So long you remain a victim, getting degraded by anyone who attacks you, we are fine.

So long you fight our idols, we are fine.

So long you don't have personal honor, we are fine.

So long you are tortured for the necessities of life, we are fine.

So long you allow us to plunder everything, we are fine.

So long you are a slave to our programs, ideas and agenda, you are fine.

So long you remain a stupid activist or in any other form of inactive rebellion against us, we are fine. S o long you poison yourself while making us rich, we are fine.

So long you comply and leave us destroy your state and nation, and above all, Race, we are fine.

So long you believe in "God", or this creation of ours drives your actions, we are fine.

So long you do believe Satan is the source of all evil and always blame him, in all your theory and actions, we are fine.

So long you don't adhere to your heritage and it leaves you uninterested, we are fine.

So long you don't long for anything really transcendental and to really become powerful and to know more, we are fine.

So long you praise democracy, communism, anarchy or any other program we have created and lets us thrive, we are fine.

So long you scorn Hitler in any way possible, directly or indirectly, we are fine.

So long your opinions align with ours, or by opposition assist ours, we are fine.

So long you falsely think you are free because of the plurality of fake deceitful "choices" we have created, we are fine.

So long you have no big dreams, we are fine.

So long you are willing to be enslaved and destroyed, we are fine.

So long you don't long for any "forgotten" or "ancient past", we are fine.

So long you eat improperly and generally damage your body, we are fine.

So long you don't pursue much anywhere, we are fine.

So long you live enough to serve us, we're fine.

And of course, when you love us, protect us and praise us as your "gods", we are fine. Or it could be our idols too.

And of course, again, so long you don't fight us, we're fine. Leave us rule and we are fine. Allow our privilege from "god" to enslave you and kill you, and we are fine.

Now, call this a life and we're fine.

Back to work Goyim and remember...We're fine... We need to be fine!"
