

Forums Upgrade - Maintenance - April 18th to 19th

Please be aware that during the next days maintenance to further better the forums will take place. This is already mostly done. We aim for 0 interruption on service in the meanwhile.

Posts in the meanwhile should be kept in notepad or a word document in case of loss. After this, everything will be back to normal, only way better.

If the forums are not up, do not be alarmed, this is only so that they are upgraded.

Meanwhile, all JoS related websites should be perfectly up and going as per usual.

Thanks everyone.
