

RTR Spiritual Warfare Schedule 19th Feb to 1st of March - and an Address

by High Priest Hooded Cobra 666

February 18, 2021

Greetings to all of our Satanic Comrades.

Below there is the SS warfare schedule we will be doing. Feel free to scroll down and begin even immediately. The info and details have been posted below.

Due to the enemy's plans and activity, it has been adjusted with the necessary and most impactful things to counteract the forces they are raising. This involves not only offsetting heavy negativity, but also undoing all their work that they are trying to do.

Personally my wish was that we would never be in the situation where one would no longer need any "conspiracy" and "explanations" about what the enemy does. Why this is the case? Because it would be better if the enemy's plans were only dreams, or just the insanity of a few, or far less visible and important, so people who called on these, were considered insane if anything else.

The times when this was "insanity" and "labelling" people was more important than the events itself, because these were subtle, were more comfortable times before anything like this was actually unfolding in front of everyone's eyes.

But now it's happening. And there is no time or words to waste. Human beings and people have to wage opposition on all fronts to these sickening ideas that the enemy is promoting. Everyone will fight from their own level. At this point also, each person will fight this to the level they understand it.

A person down in Texas, will fight this by refusing to give up their guns. Another person, will fight it by alerting people in a podcast or even risk their head to do this on TV, like we saw some doctors who had the guts to decide to do it. Another person will fight this secretly, and other people will fight this even with limited understanding or knowledge, from a standpoint through which many of us may not even agree. But every person has to fight.

At the same time, there are no people that are going to do, in fighting the spiritual battle against this odious and nefarious reality that is being visualized as a future of our world. The enemy already has shown us the plan, and now, they try to impose it.

Many people are currently frozen and others have chosen the path of ignorance. Others have chosen a semi-state of being awake and asleep at the same time. Others will run to "Christ" to be saved, and others will ignore this hoping it goes away. We can't be these people.

The forces of the mind and the soul are very real and they affect our reality more than people can remotely understand. Those of you who were graced to be empowered and uplifted in consciousness through the help and teachings of the Demons, do understand it. As such, because we are both the most informed and the most precious group of humans who have a clue, we are at duty to do what we have to do and project these forces to counteract the enemy.

This is total spiritual war. For those of you who can see, you already see it happening against us. The enemy has mobilized all their forces and we are obligated as guardians of humanity to do the same thing. Nobody else is going to do that. Beneath these forces, you see people rallying. People are resisting. Some who are in a coma, are waking up. But the battle is raging on.

While the tide may be against us, we have a powerful ship, and we have an even more powerful and decided gathering of people, which collectively has an iron will. We have not given up despite of anything. Most people out there cannot take half of the Truths that many of us have consumed like easy breakfast.

The hierarchical law of nature, and the Gods, dictate to us to do what we consider now of all times most necessary: To defend and hold the spiritual bastion of our people, races, and Nations, to resist and to crush the enemy. What they intend to do to everyone, will be brought back at them.

Another SS mentioned in a comment, that were it not for us, everything would have possibly collapsed already. Considering the financial, psychological, political, mob warfare, that is at an all time high, I am personally certain things are holding together only through the inner spiritual resolve of people. We are the embodiment of this spiritual resolve.

With the means at the disposal of the enemy, their political influence, wealth, mass media brainwashing, and their control of information, it is by itself a miracle that people have understood much of this and are even reacting on an individual level.

Over all this years, and by being with the Gods, I have understood that there is a source of limitless power and resolve inside of every human being. We do not understand it, but it is part of us.

To say no lies, we are early on in a battle that has just now began. Humanity has friend and allies, and then it has enemies.

People who are scared now and cannot conceive what is going on, they blame Satan or us for all of this. Some of our own here are worried about that. But hasn't it all been the case every single century?

The same people, will read the Constitution of the United States, the major document which denies all Christian values. The enemy speaks about disarming, weakening humans, abolishing property. The height of the power of the enemy was one of ignorance, crushing of the common man, devaluation of all knowledge.

All the people who went against the enemy establishment were always "Satanists", they were "Enemies", and they were defiled and attacked. There have been similar times in this world's history. It's because other people fought during these times, we got to reach here, on these times, where some freedoms exist, some rights exist, and humans have a reason to exist.

But in a lot of history under the enemy there were only times of fear, suffering and abuse of human beings, a never ending bullying. The fragile nature of freedom showed itself once again - and how short our memory is. It's only been a few hundreds of years where people are taking a breath, and the enemy is again promoting their schizophrenia to create a Feudal regime, but this time, in a technocratic fashion.

Instead of a brainwashed Christian Pastor observing you on every corner, they now have decided that will be an impersonal camera. The cycles of these things do keep happening because nobody was dealing with the problem of the enemy at the root, due to lack of ability, knowledge, and too much enemy control.

As a result, our history is a garden that needs consistent removal of bad weeds.

We are used to this and we are the ones who were smart and resilient enough to look past the fence of lies. We can stay happy and optimistic about all of this, because our Gods have given us power. Our awareness of things and our protection, for those who are with Satan and practice this path, you know they are with you and they are protecting you.

Meanwhile, million are being set up for a total fallout and crash, but nobody is going to care for them. Do you see many people receiving even an emotional condolence over what is going on? People are allowed to fall into the abyss.

Satan does not allow this for nobody. But with the powers given, bestowed, and discovered, and the profound awareness the "Serpent" has given us in the garden, is manifested.

No matter what, everyone has to stay focused now. We cannot spiritually falter. The Gentiles have nobody but us. There are no spiritual people for centuries to do any form of spiritual duty to fend of these dangers, and no people that take care of the natural undercurrents that motivate our society, human behavior, and inner well-being.

The Final RTR is always to be combined with the Destruction of the Tetragrammaton. Since they will be focusing on these, and they are already focusing on the 42/72, we will focus primarily on these.

News have been leaking around, that the enemy is on rampage of both prayer, ritual sacrifices, and generally everything possible such as using their own entirely to try to turn the tide around. The three days that are bold below, we are to focus and wipe it all out strongly.

When these rituals are done, visualization and focus are important. Especially on the bold days. Just do your best - but definitely participate.

Do not allow thoughts or issues to get in the way. The focus must be strong, and the intention that it's all dead and gone forever must be a strong resounding energy on the Astral. This will impede the enemy and collapse their own energetic structure that they are trying to raise.

It must be shown that we will NOT accept this worthless manifestation the enemy is trying to attempt. This world belongs to Gentiles and exists for the advancement and our future. It does NOT exist to end up as a farm under the hands of the enemy.

Lastly, I will close this with a small prayer:

Hear, O Satan our tears for Truth,
Shelter us, O Satan, in times of despair,
Uplift us, O Satan, to heavenly pleasure and understanding,
Be imparted, O Satan, in our hearts, minds and souls,
And give us, O Satan, the power do the noble deeds.

Allow neither, O Satan, pacification and ignorance,
Bring to us, O Satan, Truth and freedom,
Shield us, O Satan, from error and downfall,
Believe in us, O Satan, as the heirs of your divinity,
Deliver us, O Satan, from the fall of mankind.

Blessed be, O Satan, your eternal blessings upon us.

After this schedule, we will focus on more positive things and blessings to everyone can benefit collectively.

War Room Timing:

Our War Room Clock over at www.evilgoy.com has been up and running.

When the War Room clock shows 1, we do the FRTR + Tetra.

At 0, we do the 42 Reversal and Blood Sacrifice reversal.

The above is only ideal and one should NOT follow this, if following this would make one to impact the time. It is not necessary, but it will help if some of us organize at given hours.

At the 20th, 21st, 22nd, it would be good if we could follow the above rule, because the enemy will do a TIMED attack, and we can strongly offset it with a coordinated response.
