Greetings to all our Warriors.

The introduction is going to be a bit lengthy, but it will answer some important questions everyone has.

Below is the Schedule for the next 8 days. As a note, our last schedule did very good, and we must keep up the pace in the same direction. It's of extreme importance that we keep on this struggle, as the enemy is more everyday weakening.

Before anything I wanted to say something. Many people are posting recommendations on what to reverse. In this rotten book that is 2000 pages long, there is endless material for possible reversal. Natural problems are into this book, unnatural problems created by it, and many other things. This is logical for people to assume that if you reverse these verses one by one, it's going to have impact.

Others want to do this for their own reasons. But it will not work that way. Those who have created these things have had more insight than the people thinking in these linear terms, and they have even put traps into this book. The same goes for many other spells and curses the ancients did put in place.

There are curses from incest, to cancer-like diseases, to pedophilia, to whatever else morbidly imaginable. These create or amplify, or just parade that they create, some natural phenomena. Others are valid and real, others are there for the sake of them, and others are irrelevant and based upon others.

Breaking these smaller specific curses one by one is not intelligent, and we do not have the time to do this. This is a complete waste of energy, and the rabbis and everyone know this as well. This is because the whole book is like a keyboard, from where the enemy presses little buttons to make things manifest.

Now, if you destroy the little buttons one by one, it will take centuries, and on top of this you will fail as simply time is really pressing. The whole thing has to be unplugged, destroyed and burned with Thor's hammer, and it has to be destroyed at its very root, from where it begins. This is what the RTR's put out by the Clergy do. Also, to understand the 'Torah', one needs to have serious insight.

As for the people who study it and are not 100% self knowledgeable and protected, this can have negative effects. The mere exposing to this crap starts programming a person with a weak mind accordingly. And you don't need to have a weak mind. People who waste time into this pursuit should focus their time into getting to know Satan and the Gods, not reading a defiled manuscript that messes up your mind and perception. This will not advance you. The clergy has to do this, it's not pleasant to do, because we dive into the their spiritual-made sewer to open the dam so we can deal with the matter how we should.

Now, while this cannot be said for certain for general purposes of 'logic', I myself am certain that the Vegas shooting was done in some sort of unconscious style of retaliation because of their energies not working properly in Yom Kippur. So they decided to do it 'manually' and maul some Gentiles up in Las Vegas so they would 'pay for these sins'.

All these events are occult related, and it can be seen in how they are reported as well, but their are multi-faced and motivated by many goals. However, none of these work in the end in their purposes. In the past, and one of these events being the tragic incident of the 9/11, these worked perfectly in the enemy instilling their laws and statuses in the foreign land for the Jews.

As jewish rabbis have admitted, if the jews keep on the same pace in the USA, their time there and in the world is limited, and they have to do Aliyah (to return to Israel) before it is too late. This is effectively admitting their defeat, and wanting to spare their own. However knowing their greed, of course, they will never, ever do this.

For a few reasons one can gather from above, we will keep with the Kol Nidre for a few additional days. However we must return also to other rituals of extreme importance.

With the planetary aspects, we have some extreme opportunities to usher right now.

Below is the RTR Schedule for the dates given:

*In bold are the Rituals which must be done at all costs by those who struggle with time constraints. In extreme cases (we must not use this as an excuse as the RTR's are very easy to do), pick one of the two.
