

Is the Birthrate of Whites the Woman's Fault? A Refutation for the Argument of 'Christian Values'

The problem with jewish problems, is that oftentimes they pose as solutions.

Example: Christianity destroys every fundamental Pagan value that was life giving. After the damage from the virus is done, it poses again as the solution. When this solution is adopted, the damage done is multiplied.

This is like a toxic partner, coming to you again and again, to make "everything right". After about 20 attempts of trying to make "everything right", one can be as destroyed, that they don't care about anything anymore. This is how jewish programs work, as they are inherently adopting parasitic practices.

First and foremost, Christianity damns the memory of the Ancestors, the importance of the blood, and the bright advanced future that Pagans did seek, and all the values that cause procreation to flourish, such as life and glory.

The Abrahamic recommendation of how Europeans should deal with their women, is incompatible with the European spirit, and also, the soul of women and men fundamentally. This is why it's always rejected, and if imposed, it backfires so bad, that we get to see the next fruits of this corrupted seed, such as Feminism and so on. People literally try to flee this from all directions from centuries now, and jews have been exploiting this to ruin us further.

In this state of sinking, people are asked to "procreate", but effectively, all they are asked is to brainlessly generate slaves. Of course, most women are lost today, because with the lack of the above values, having babies within the current jewish socio-economic environment, and doing this indiscriminately, can cause non-pleasantries in the life.

Of course, NOT having children, also causes non-pleasantries in life. One major problem of this, is heading straight into extinction as a collective. These are secluded from the eyes of people, no different than the values above.

Then the 70 IQ christian comes in, and tells everyone to basically shove their cock anywhere and just have kids. Really smart of them. That will solve a lot, they think. But in reality, it solves nothing. In fact, the programmed christian does this: make the issue appear even more repulsive, and deter people from actually looking at the issue to solve it.

An example here is, when we are talking about the birthrate issues of the White Race, the "Traditionalists" [xians and xian minded individuals] commonly say that it's "women's fault" that don't "want" to have babies, or that they are becoming "whores" and so on.

These asinine arguments are based on the first lie of Christianity - that everything is the fault of females. In effect, emasculated and unnatural xians, are afraid of women and femininity, and their major disconnect from this concept in life, makes them blame it like the devil for them being defunct in many levels.

They also have other ideals such as "pro life", which is basically the idea that a woman must always, no matter what, give birth, even if it was not consensual, if it was a retard, if it has down syndrome, or if her husband is not going to be available, or whatever. Naturally, half the woman population in the United States, find these repulsive. That is normal, because these are not proper ideals.

And what does the jew do? They promote the other extreme: maximum denial to have kids, copulation with other races since the White race is left without procreation values or proper understanding, and who knows what else, just observe society.

As with the adoption of any jewish lie, if it looks good on the surface, like Feminism or many other jewish plots do, or MGTOW, it describes actual symptoms of society and humanity, but the way to solving these is not this way. In fact, when these jewish paths are followed, they cause the doubling or tripling of these problems.

An example, the more Feminism expands and attacks males, this will increase their hate. The more "pro life" forces itself down the throats of people and recommends they breed retards, the more women will be repelled and go to the left wing and deny this instinct.

These reactions, are reactions of self-preservation. The jews know this, and they abuse this mechanism to make people do the wrong decisions in their society and life.

The above lie that "women are at fault" exclusively, is nothing else than an extrapolation of these:

1. Poor understanding of the world.
2. Oversimplification of a very serious topic.
3. Ignoring socio-economic reality as it's being shaped, same as civilization advancement that is taking place
4. The xian underlying program that hates females and hates sexuality, in particular because they cannot understand it.
5. Incel fearful writers that don't understand women, and could never really deal with them in any realistic way.

Then, these "Traditionalists" go one step further, and say that the way out of this, is to just "Put women in their place", and in effect, turn them into some sort of xian lifeless zombie, that will only give births.

This manifests the work of the Jew: Women hate on the traditions. And why?

Because these dumb fucks, don't impose any tradition on them, but only the Abrahamic tradition, which is naturally repulsive to our people and our race.

All of that mentality has occurred and is straight out from the dogma of "Abrahamism". Xianity is only interested in the procreation of more and more slaves, and like all Abrahamic religions, it never takes a spherical view of affairs.

It cares not about the people, their future, nor their past. Just for them to keep procreating slaves, no matter the cost for them, and without any social provision. This is why the Pope in Europe, is quick to kiss the feet of all his refugees, when they invade. He does not care from where the slaves come, he only cares that they come.

It is therefore convenient for these people, to blame everything "on women", and the ideal man of this religion is either a brainless brute, or a diseased incel fuck, that is the perfect "Saint".

Neither are of course, capable or responsible fathers, warriors, or any other actual male archetype. All they represent is a cuckold or a jewish brute crucified upon the crucifix.

The men and women who actually build families and have kids, always seem to do, in the United States, completely outside of this context.

Yes, some may go to church and so on, but the reality is, before going to church in Sunday, they are fucking in the truck on Saturday, "before marriage" and so on, because you know, we are human beings, and who cares about "Christ", his "Marriage" clauses, and whatever else?

That would send them into hell, but they are busy going to heaven instead, and they saw no Christ at all into that heaven this Saturday.

The jewish egregore of christ, is just hovering around human life, taking credit for everything positive that it does.

The stupidity and radical inequality of the thinking process of jews, that destroys civilizations, is reflected in all the "pro life" ideology. While, being partially correct, is also partially entirely false.

According to them, down syndromic offspring, bad husbands, quality of life, none of that matters. Just get out that servant of "God" and if he is retarded or crippled, all the better! Christianity needs material to justify its existence with!

When these people are penning theories about how one is to promote one's species, it's all going to get bad. They are unhealthy, stupid, and diseased. Their simplicity of brain is below the task of solving a matter such as let's say, the issue of birthrates of White people or something.

At the same rate, the natural volition of White people, has always been to balance births with quality of existence. You can have 10 trillion destitute people that live like greys. Alright, the species has been "Guaranteed" to exist. But what about its quality of life?

The expanding of life without a plan on how it's going to fare, is a lot like cancer out of control. The Nations and people's that adopt this, bring misery onto their people, and this misery disallows for the other half end of what should be the case for human beings: Their development.

White people and in particular White women, even if their mechanisms of their mind have been affected by jewish mindwashing, unconsciously understand that. The thought of a woman that wants to have kids, is not the mere procreation of a species [this is the idea of the man in general on the subject], but the woman, on an instinctive level, is already thinking of the birth, the taking care of her, and the existence of resources and so on to embark into this.

This same mechanism of seeking luxury and other physical stability, was brought out of context in combination with rampant selfishness and low spiritual awareness, but also poor instincts. Just open Instagram and see what is going on with girls there, and you will understand. It's a mixture of the traditionally female processing mechanisms, going haywire.

The same going haywire on men's mechanisms was activated in other intervals of human history, or is now active in places like for example, our recent Taliban controlled Nation. Over there, people are going to be subjected to tyrannical energy from now on, and will probably exist even lower than they did before.

Most of the imbalances between male and female relationships, did emerge from spiritual ignorance which is rooted in Christianity, and the spiritual ignorance this brings inside us and about ourselves.

With poor understanding of ourselves, or our species in general, it becomes impossible to create anything. The species that manage to create something great or big, will eventually destroy it through lack of understanding to maintain it.

Other peoples may not be able to even create anything and destroy themselves on very basic levels of existence, and way before something is actually made.

The Christians you will hear telling you, that the way towards family or sustenance of life, is through "Christian Values". But in reality, they never opened the bible. If they did they would find the following:

1. Rabbi Jesus recommends destroying your family to follow the jew
2. Celibacy, and therefore, no procreation or testing out if you match [recipe for damned marriage]

3. The human body is considered defiling, if your eye causes you to look at the woman, pluck it out, oy vey.
4. Christianity promotes superstition and stupidity [add mass stupidity to large masses of people, and you'll see the results as we see them today].
5. Christianity abolishes any rule of any "Good offspring", espousing the birth of retards and the worst of the worst as "beautiful gifts from God".
6. Only one form of relationship is approved, and that is, forced monogamous relationship. If this marriage "Breaks", under "God", both are going to roast in hell of course, for denying their slave god.
7. The ramifications of infinite births are not cared for in christianity. Why? Because it's a slave program. As far as it's concerned, you have to breed like a fucking retard - the quality of births or civilization is not needed.
8. Coupled with the above, the fact that humans aren't worth shit, is a major theme in the bible, same as misogyny and the reduction of a woman into nothing. A woman that is reduced into nothing, or illiterate, is the most sureproof way of reassuring that offspring will be unsupported.
9. A false "Abrahamic" patriarchy [the disease of which broke all connections between men and women in modern societies], is espoused. Jews used this jewish virus they imposed on people, to promote the next upgrade to this virus, Feminism.
10. The general message of Christianity, is one to deny earth, "earthly treasures" and anything of the sort. Then, why should one even bother with family?
11. The acceptance of every mistake, such as for example, prolific brainless births in the 3rd world, is loved by Christianity. More slaves for the pope I guess.
12. Incel, celibacy, or being a neutered and dead fuck, are all desirable "Qualities".

Needless to say, the above is only instructions on how to destroy a sane civilization, and lead it to slavery. Christians approve of any and all birthrates, despite of quality control, civilization measures, or anything of the sort.

We lived to see the manifestation of this applied logic in every 3rd world country. Also, the proliferation of birthrates without predictive powers, would only make happy a bunch of slave masters. This is why Islam also, recommends to people they breed indiscriminately and to all directions.

Civilization building done in any proper fashion, implies that births have to be fruitful, but they have to focus on the recreation rate for a civilization, but also, quality of such births. The human being needs a situation where they can reach an advancement.

Christianity completely denies the quality control of this, let alone the balance a civilization needs to take. This adopted insanity has crashed almost all of the 3rd world, but it's also present in the rampant "Charity" that Europe is doing everywhere, only to get invaded with more and more people, simply because others don't really care about birthrates, and their Nations can't provide a reasonable level of existing.

The above, happened because everyone was fucking left and right, an there was poor ability to use this labor and living force, to actually create a civilization that people would want to be part of. Europeans managed after a lot of evolutionary struggle to achieve that, but they are now going to kill themselves in the opposite direction because of Jewish mindwashing, which is a birthrate reduction situation, if ongoing trends continue.

In the same way, the "Christian Traditionalist" perspective, does not take in consideration the individual needs of human beings, which are the catalyst of not only birth, but the quality of the mass of the civilization, and the offspring. This involves education and everything else. Christian values also devalue the female, and therefore, approximately more than half of our civilization.

Women, are naturally repulsed by these ideals, and they are not compatible with them, nor they have ever been in any Pagan civilization. The argument that they have had adopted some norms at "some time", such as being solely a housewife, is because also the range of decisions for a woman due to lack of social development, was already too low. The same goes for men. Many men for centuries couldn't study because they grew up in very small villages. This changed with time, for example.

The above is not a result of a "Christian success" or anything of the sort, but just how the world was then, and how it is now.

Now, in regards to this, traditionalists also misinform that Hitler turned women into breeding machines or whatever of the sort. That is the most stupid thing I have ever read, but coming from Christians, their stupidity is always leaving me in awe every single day.

In our world today, women are extorted with these two decisions, often leading them to decision 3:

1. Leave your dreams and your life behind [and also engage yourself in an unstable life of potential poverty], and gamble your way into a bunch of not mature men, and have "kids". This doesn't look like a reasonable decision from a risk and suffering standpoint, and therefore, many women, even those who want to be mothers, are bound to wait for other circumstances to arise, which thanks to the Jewish socio-economic system, might never arise.

2. Have kids early and pray that it all goes well. Also risky.

3. Don't have anything at all, use whatever little time you will have and resources to maintain your personal existence, and remain alone or whatever of that sort. This is actually the least risky choice, as it involves only personal risk.

As it should be evident, the incentivized approach to take any of these choices, forces most women to go for 3. In fact, even caring women who would love to have children, are actually forced to take decision 3, despite their desires or efforts. This is a majority of women who want to actually have kids, but circumstances haven't led to this.

Women who are unsupported by the government, or just about anyone, and oftentimes, even their own families, how can they exactly embark into this very risky choice? They cannot.

Hitler and the National Socialists, also did legalize abortion. This is not something many people know, but yes, they actually did legalize abortion, which made many Christians of the time, go crazy over this. Of course, Nazis were accused for doing this at the time, as "Criminals" that "wanted to kill babies" by the Jews.

Jews also say it was annuda shoah in regards to Nazi Germany, to hide the fact that actually women were free to abort, which is a major stabbing of the jewish leftist agenda. Now, the jews are posing with the same ideology, trying to play smart for actually recognizing this right to women, but they are about many decades late.

It was understood, that if a woman doesn't really want to have children, she just can't have them. And if she can't have them, she won't want them. And bear in mind, we are in the 1935's now, where in most Nations, even the idea of this was not entertained. Women had far less rights in many other Nations at the time.

In effect, forced birth, would create would be a child that is not feeling loved and not being welcomed to the world. This is not a good advancement strategy for a society.

So yes, way before your favourite leftist group did this, the NS had approved women's right to abortion. This is because, except of the promulgation of life, one has to also consider the quality of such life. How is it going to live, exist, survive? What about the parents? Society?

Hitler made the decisions as following for civilization:

1. Become a mother [single or how you want] and have excessive state income, honor in society, your babies, and exist in a free and secure manner. Good choice for survival. I also believe women were given free things like houses and so on, after having 3 babies, and they were also tax exempt alongside other benefits.
2. If you form a family, the State will boost your husband with higher pay so that he takes all the toil of labor, and that you can, if you want, stay at home.
3. If you don't, you can still follow career and everything, but one's position will be equal to that of a man, and therefore subject to the menial suffering men have to undergo everyday. Some women who didn't want to live the life of a mother opt for this choice.

Needless to say, none of the above choices would kill anyone, and all look reasonably good to take. This is called using positive incentive in society. We don't know what this is anymore, because the jews only torture people to do bad decisions.

The Jewish system, at the same time, not only LIES about where these choices lead, but is in effect, shoving people's life into one choice, with all means possible, from brainwashing, to mere financial slavery.

One could go on and on. Needless to say, many "Traditionalists", promote the idea that returning to the Jewish values, is going to solve anything in the White Birthrate or our "Traditions". They also try to mix these with "National Socialism" or other places, such as ours here, but it simply doesn't stick.

This post should explain why this is not the case, and where this idea comes from.

Asking women to randomly procreate, is a retarded thing to ask them, because at the way things are, without State help, or financial help, or proper family unit, or without money, it's as if asking them to pull the trigger on themselves. Jews manufactured society to be like this, very carefully, and with decades of work.

If these issues were out of the way, with proper Satanic Government, the majority would be literally desiring and wanting to have kids on their own accord. We will need to say nothing, neither to dictate things to people. Just lay out a better structure of society for them that will support them, and they will do the rest for their own benefit.

Doing something in your life, returning to the previous subject, can also happen on the appropriate timeline. The reason why many women in the West decide to have kids late, is because they want to get sorted other particular needs that pertain to SURVIVAL, and then hopefully get an opportunity to get married and have kids.

All these social instabilities, are instabilities that manifested themselves first spiritually, but also financially in civilizations. For example, the idea that individuals need to be paid below levels reasonable for their existence, is exclusively a Jewish ideal.

While many women are told this was done to "Free them" in a way, in fact, this was only done to free the Jews. If you want to see original woman hating, just look at Jews and their religious tenets.

Jews had enslaved men for doing labor, and they thought to themselves after a point: "This goyim is rejecting Christianity and trying to get a balance between the women. This is our opportunity. Make women work too so that we have twice the labor power in our hands."

And so it happened, because of also history and socio-economic realities.

We could go on and on here. What I want to conclude, is that the idea that women don't do this, or that women have exclusive responsibility, is errant. The responsibility is shared.

Men also have responsibility that they don't want to assume. Women, from a natural standpoint, are not entitled by anyone nor they have to forcibly be with a man, nor there is some sort of guarantee men will be getting women at all, unless of course, they have achieved specific things.

These things could be just normal things, just as having a job, or being reasonably normal looking and so on.

Women and men have their own obligations which "Entitle them" to access to the opposite gender and also procreative ability or lack thereof. For women, this tends to be "easier" to access, but this is only because many men aren't doing their lifting at all.

Men, are equally responsible for the failing birthrates, as there are women. Also, in the absence of natural masculine force within a civilization, the imbalance is going to happen by default. This is not the fault of females, because it's not done consciously, but is a natural outcome of what is going to happen.

Having jews in your civilization is going to also turn this into an even worse event. In fact, we would never be facing the issues of extinction birthrates, if it wasn't for jews, despite of what set of values we would be following that has been practiced in the past.

The "Return to Christian Values" poses only a danger to the future of birthrates to a people, and is an enemy for their quality of existence and life because it refuses quality and denies all values of how people are going to be after this. This "return" is only a "return" to the hands of a jew that everyone already detests, and women above all.

The only thing this will achieve, is just to continue a world that is in contrast with the inherent Pagan Soul of Europeans and other Gentiles, and in the case of the first, it has not worked in the past.

Spiritual Satanism and anything coming out of it, is to take reality and the best provisions in consideration, not just bullshit.

In this case, to only live to procreate one's self and have no aim at existing, is a life without worth and value. This type of existence would be satisfying to the xians.

Spiritual Satanism would instead be answering not only this, but why? Because of Ancestors. Because of the love of new life. Because of sharing a wonderful civilization with the next generation. To not lose our labours for aeons. To build somewhere and become as the Gods.

These things are more tentative to make people to want to keep existing, rather than all the messages projected during this failure of an era.

When Truth is spoken, it can also make itself make sense easily. It's not very difficult.

Lastly, in contrast to the "Christian Right Wing" and other things, Spiritual Satanism does adopt nature and accepts nature as it is. At the same time, we believe the opposite of what the xians do, because the xians are anti-nature. We want to advance on the natural blueprint, too.

Since this is a big topic, this is not surmised here entirely, but I just wanted to give a general idea of approaching the subject.

Do not listen to the enemy, they are lying to all of us. The outcomes of these lies we are seeing by its fruit.
