Now, this took a very long time, and a lot of effort, endless amount of time. Because there are many hundreds of pages, it's normal that something may still be broken (after it has been looked over for 10 times).

FINALLY these are done. Be aware, there may still be one or two things escaped or broken in some places. You can let us know and we will resolve the issues. After this and pretty soon, we will do advertising and activism for our sites, as part of our online warfare. This is planned. There are more pressing matters on the table now, these are too many but necessary, but this is coming soon. Everyone will be informed.

The Black Sun and Death of Communism have also been restored:

The enemy is clearly trying to make all of these disappear because they say the truth. We are doing our best to restore everything.

Feel free to inform if anything is off or missing.

In regards to the enemy's celebration aka the coming Passover, we are going to inform you really soon. The enemy doesn't have to know in advance. Will we do this, will we do that? Who knows? Maybe we will do this or that? We will inform everyone in time however. Everyone must keep doing (and mercilessly) the Final RTR.

Be aware also, that jews are reading these forums and also these groups. They are watching. So it's important to keep this in mind, too.

In regards to the coming times, Satan has said "It will turn bloody". The rise of Islam in Europe and the intensification of Israel's efforts in the Middle East are two things to really be concerned about. The enemy is going full speed with their planning, and they are accelerating everything because they are running out of time. As to why they are running out of time, Rabbis are clearly aware of this. "Hard times are coming for Israel".

The enemy is panicking, and they are going to do their best in order to keep not only the truth suppressed, but also with their flick murderous rituals. All the enemy has to reply is either violence, or psychotic tricks. The enemy is really losing the long-term battle, and they will keep getting more and more blatant as time goes. When things reach such a level, the enemy always shows their true face in full force.

Keep in touch here and we will proceed with everything.

HAIL SATAN!!!
