

Crypto Jew Erdogan, Islamism and the 'Coups'

As it's well known, the Turkey of Erdogan is the biggest dealer of Rapefugees and the major proxy from which the troops of the (((Caliphate))) enter the European Soil. Of course, all this is under the policy of the "Islamist" Tayyip Erdogan. The close connection between the Radical Pisslamics, the other sultans, and at the same time the talks and rumours about "turkey entering the EU" should all be self evident. Two sided game with the same purpose. One way or the other, the aim is the wiping of Europe, the West and the general furthering of the jewish agenda, part of which is Islamic Conquest (For now, because later, full blown Communism will crown the jewish effort). Islamism is nothing but the jewish Agenda of Islam (Branch of Judaism) to be enforced in the "Eastern" countries.

Tayyip is a jew that wanted to make Turkey a Caliphate for the Jews, and make himself Sultan over it.

Erdogan is a Crypto, that recently met with his Kabbalist Friends from Pissrael, on what it should do. Of course, like Jewcy Putin and all others, they try to make them seem as "Anti-Zionists" and "Anti-Semitic". Oy Vey. Where is the difference between "Islamist" and "Jewish". Erdogan is just a jewish puppet, put on the Turkey populace to radicalize it and make it into just another (((ISIS))) state. He has been doing so for years, by undermining the laws and anything else. He is a well known supporter of the terror regimes of the jews, and probably, a crypto jew himself.

As about the story of this guy...His connection with the (((terrorist))) organizations that destabilize the Middle East, are well known:

<https://web.archive.org/web/20170722122051/https://www.theguardian.com/world/2016/jul/16/how-recep-tayyip-erdogan-inflamed-tensions-in-turkey>

"Information was sketchy but Recep Tayyip Erdoğan has alarmed many with his staunchly Islamist and increasingly authoritarian views, especially in the military, which has traditionally seen itself as a guardian of the country's secular heritage, embodied by Kemal Atatürk, the founder of the modern republic. The president's rhetoric has polarised the country and inflamed ethnic and sectarian tensions.

Erdoğan's involvement in the Syrian crisis – opposing the president, Bashar al-Assad, and backing Islamist groups fighting to overthrow him – has created the opposite of the old aspiration of "zero problems" with the neighbours. The resumption of conflict with the PKK after a two-year ceasefire complicated matters even further.

In recent weeks, however, he has moved to mend fences with both Russia and Israel following years of estrangement over the killing of activists on the "peace flotilla" sent to deliver aid to the blockaded Gaza Strip."

Erdogan is just a crypto, serving his jewish friends, with the facade of the Islamist, while in fact, he and all his (((team))) does know where this whole thing accounts to, He is (((bureaucracy))) incarnate, like all other ticks the jews place to rule slavishly over Nations. Turkey, like all other countries, has to face the same Jewish problem.

It's part of the persecution complex of the kikes, and a major stepping stone on promoting false saviours, like Trumpey and the list goes, Jews that will save Gentiles from Jews, like Jewsus Krayst. The pattern is always the same. This way the Goyim will be pre-occupied with couch saviors until the end of time, and they will never act to solve anything in the end:

In his 2007 bestseller book, "The Children of Moses", quirky Turkish writer Ergun Poyraz claimed that then Prime Minister [now President] Recep Tayyip Erdoğan was a crypto-Jew. [i]The book's cover depicted Erdogan and his wife in a Star of David, and portrayed Erdogan as a secret agent of "international Jewry." [...]

Jokes aside, this guy just went to his (((cousins))) and probably related he was faced with serious problems. Many people in Turkey don't like them, and the same goes for many others who disagree with his radicalization. Erdogan is not a loved leader, so he needed advice on how to turn the matter around. Apparently, his (((Cousins))) replied.

Dirty Deals: What Was the Agenda Behind Turkey's Erdogan Meeting American Jewish Leaders?

Needless to say, the Jewish leaders showed little discretion in holding such a high-level meeting just as the Turkish leader was being grilled for the authoritarian steps his government is taking. There is no doubt that Jewish organizations have serious issues to bring up with the Turkish government, which until recently openly sanctioned anti-Semitism. However, didn't they talk about these issues just a month ago? Was another meeting that critical?

True, since the first meeting an Israeli tourist group was the subject of an ISIS attack in Istanbul and there are reports that Istanbul's Jewish community was being specifically targeted by ISIS. However, it is highly unlikely that these American Jewish organizations can contribute much to this conversation. And if the meeting was designed to help smooth the path toward Israeli-Turkish reconciliation – does Israel really need their help in reaching an agreement with Turkey?

More on this "meeting":

"Turkish President Recep Tayyip Erdogan met with Jewish leaders in Washington reportedly to smooth ties as Turkey and Israel seek to reconcile.

Jewish groups in attendance included the Anti-Defamation League, the American Israel Public Affairs Committee, B'nai B'rith International, the Jewish Community Relations Council of Greater Washington and the Conference of Presidents of Major American Jewish Organizations.

"Erdogan and the guests reiterated their willingness to strengthen cooperation and communication despite differences," said a report Wednesday in Turkey's Daily Sabah newspaper, citing "presidential sources."

Apparently, Crypto Tayyip is throwing off the veil and going straight with his cousins and openly. Oy vey, how did that happen?

*Only six years after the publication of The Children of Moses, Erdogan, along with Iran's supreme leader, Ayatollah Khamenei, and UN official Richard Falk, was on top of the Simon Wiesenthal Center's annual list of the top 10 anti-Semitic and anti-Israel slurs. If one asked Poyraz, he would most likely explain Erdogan's deep anti-*

Semitism with another conspiracy theory: his public anti-Semitism is a perfect "disguise" for him to serve the Jews.

Tayyip Erdogan has been an avid supporter of (((ISIS))), while at the same time tries to play tabs on the (((taken over))) West. Why? Because this is one and the same. He has to play that role. On one, he has to control the (((Islamic outrage))), on the other, he has to promote the (((EU agenda))) even if just indirectly or pretending "support". Both of which push the greater agenda. The Jewish Governments of the West funded and created ISIS, in order to have the necessary excuses for intervention into the Middle East, to help the jews create their greater Israel. This is so jewish that it's not even hiding itself anymore. Jews create the "Dangers" on themselves, and also the dummies, then lastly, the smoke and mirrors. What's important is that Gentiles die for their wars, they remain strong, undisputed and as secret as possible (not anymore) unless it's too late for them to be stopped.

As for the "Coup" (or the Jewish Kabal magick fairydust)...

The fairly obvious to people who know of the Jewish Kabbalism, is the numbers used.

First, on the first report of the victims, they used the "42 Victims".

<https://web.archive.org/web/20170722122051/http://www.thehindu.com/news/international/turkey-political-situation/article8856482.ece>

Shortly after, this became "60".

Oy Vey, what a coincidence.

The jews of course, are entirely behind and into this story. What is exactly going on will soon be known, however.
