

Dealing With Astral Entities - Mass Karma - Part 4 (2/2)

Greetings to all our People and Satanic Comrades.

For Short, I had to put "Dealing With Astral Entities" in DWAE.

How it is sometimes, is when you have something planned, always something pops, especially in our case which demands our total daily attention. This is because there is always much to do for Satan, and the Gods. This never ends.

Now this to examine a step deeper into Karma. As I have analyzed in the first part of the series, this will deal with the other part. I will call it "Massive" Karma as this deals with masses.

To make it easily understandable, let's say that Mass Karma is in many ways a sum up of individual Karma's. This is a very simplistic way to put it, but at least it can help us see the first thing that comes to categorization. For instance, the people affect each other's karma, in many ways. This is not only spiritual, this is also by many means physical and happens on the physical level. The root of this is metaphysical.

For instance when we have a relationship, we have a synastry chart forming. This shows some of the dynamics of the given relationship. Then we can extend this to the family, then to larger units of people, states, nations etc. The base of this, as with the individuals, is the Race. One of the reasons the jews want to mix Races is because they want to mix their "Karma". This is why many other Races who don't labour, see intermixing with other races with a better existence, as a 'saving' of their position.

This is because the enemy has forcibly removed the means of advancement, the Spiritual advancement, and the native culture that keeps people intact. I also want to clarify that I am NOT talking about petty tribalism. I just see three large races, and then the people who are in between. The message of this post is not to escalate into senseless confusion, as those who like to be offended might be.

A lot of people also form relationships, and the list goes. Karma is tied with personal action and choice. Let's take for example the Japanese. The Japanese of course are open to travellers, culturally loyal, and a very advanced and futuristic civilization, which in most ways is also crime-less. They have made a paradise for themselves. This has happened because of labor. Nobody gave them that. The same is the case everywhere.

The jew as everyone knows is a lazy parasite. This is why in most ways, jews always want slaves to work for them, emphasize slavery, or abuse others etc. This is just how they are. However, this is not the mentality to get anywhere in the longterm. This is why I keep saying the jews don't really have a destiny. Where all Gentiles can reach by advancing, jews will never reach, because they are different. Others will, sooner or later, advance.

There are also many who mimic the jews, however, thinking this is a fast route to 'bettering' their condition. Instead of working on correcting anything, they literally ingest themselves into the "Karma" of another race, and get absorbed into their lands, tenets, or even gene-pool, all of which are generated by the Karma of these particular people/races/units. This is bad and doesn't really help neither the person on the receiving, or the giving side, in most ways. "Racism" in the negative and aggressive sense is the expression of a comeback for this thing. If things clash beyond a level, these units will literally fight.

There are four ways it can go. In the case one, people may fight it over. In the case two, people may peacefully co-exist, but without intermingling past a point, everyone develops on their pace under one flag (The USA could do this to save its ass). In case three, people may be assimilated into one clump or new race (both races lose in this process in all ways)- clashes, death and anguish are more than likely the result of this, same as longterm permanent destruction of everyone involved. In case four we have separated, healthy co-operation of sentiment and highly advanced Races, and this is the ideal system the Gods follow. In the fourth instance, everyone is safe, sound, and advances their blueprint, while maintaining friendly relations/alliances of True spirit.

This also shows mutual respect, as one does not want to destroy the other by mixing them out of existence etc. Those who are produced by the in-between, become either a friendly race of their own, or just re-assimilate where they feel at home- in the given they do what they are supposed to do to keep up with the culture. (Jews and literal parasites NOT included).

However as all of us here know, most if not MOST gentiles have fell into victims as the jews have been using them like pawns. This pawn against this pawn, and so forth.

Instead, the symptoms of any defunct Karma are just 'hidden' and so they remain until the circumstances allow of what one 'is' to manifest. The same thing goes elsewhere.

For example the jews did not have the power to fully express who they are, which is what they write in the Talmud and in the rest of their cultural literature. When circumstances will allow, as they do now to an extent such as all the crimes they do, it will manifest. And if it does, it will be too late.

This is why civilizations with many races are collapsed/or naturally tend to never 'assimilate' in any way, and as you can see in the USA, many individual Races and such, are forming their own conditions of Karma in certain places. The jews of course are the misfortune which in fact doesn't allow anything to come in its own terms. Let alone xianity and the related programs, who reinforce the worst in everyone. This is why you change neighbourhoods, or states, and you see a completely different level of being, not only economically wise, but in many other ways. This is a rough explanation as to the dynamics of this, but these are more complex.

To understand this easily, let's take a family. If everyone in the family has a good chart for wealth, is industrious etc., the family will more than likely prosper. You add one person with a disability let's say, the Karma changes. You add two people who are lazy, and this setbacks the others and the list goes. The jews, because they lie behind many of these problems by magically and physically interfering with the Karma of all other people (Remember, they have taken the position of 'god' in the physical due to belief of the dumb), they literally wreck families, states and such alike. In the same way a negative, deadly and parasitic person is a heavy burden for any unit trying to advance, this is the same case here in families, countries, states and the like.

A jew is incapable of really producing civilization or anything else, but made by its foreign creator intelligent enough to understand the spoils of those superior, and of course demand them. If one falls on their level, the jews get into their countries, infecting them in a parasitic relation. This bleeds the victim dry. In the same way some people can help us advance, others mean our death, and this is in nature, and also natal charts and the list goes.

But let's observe the matter in reverse. We have one person who doesn't like washing. They literally love filth and garbage. You bring this person inside the person of a clean disposition, who do you think will "prevail". The cleaning person, or the defiling one? Defilement doesn't take absolutely any effort in nature. The downfall spiral happens by mere passivity. The upwards needs mental consciousness, activity and action. This is how nature is.

So what is the person with a clean disposition going to do? Clean the feces, garbage and excrement of the other person, who for any reason, loves defilement. How is this possible to convince the clean person to tolerate the dirty person, given this is unnatural to the fullest? Something like "Christianity" would be the answer here. Which is nothing but a program of tolerance of crap, misfortune, acceptance of death, victimization, with the ultimate purpose of weakening people down so that the parasitic jews can rule them. This opens the doors wide.

The uprising of the '3rd world' is nothing but the instigated "Karma" where the jews try to make others do what the jews have done, to use them in their agenda. Instead of the people be guided to elevate themselves, fix their national/racial Karma, become intelligent and advance, the jews tell them to migrate to the "West" which is a Paradise. And why is the West a paradise? Because other people have been building it, other than those coming. And of course this won't last forever in this condition if this was to continue, and this is exactly the jewish aim, who by their parasitic nature cannot devise creative solutions, but they in their parasitic death as a virus that has infected a body, will kill the body and then have no body to house it anymore.

Every life-form has Karma. When lifeforms co-exist and co-advance, this creates a karma for them. As explained above, this can turn even into countries, destinies of countries and the list goes. The Blood of a Race is actually a gateway to their spiritual purpose. As thus the Gods demand Racial States and the main Races to be separate from one another, as to meet their purpose accordingly and elevate on their own pace. The Blood is not some trivial matter. It shows a lot of things. New races can be created, that harbour and have the characteristics and mixed things of two or more races, but this recurring process causes not only confusion in the Karma, but also this manifests in many other ways as in people first and foremost feeling 'torn' between two parts of what they are. Ideally, they should choose and re-assimilate where they feel good.

Now why the Jews want to race-mix people into ONE race, this should ring obvious. One Race will only have ONE karma- and ONE destiny. The Jews of course sum it up as such: To be slaves of the elect Jews. The race mixing agenda makes total sense spiritually, physically and in all levels. One who wants slaves would of course desire this for their 'cattle'. The Gods stand on the opposite direction, as they want the species of Humanity to advance, not return to being apes.

This is not what the Gods intended for Humanity. They created different Races with different purposes and reasons of existence, which are holy and known to them. These can be realized by meditation. You don't need to verbally know, but you will be able to feel it when you advance. When one advances, they will also understand this in more 'applicable' terms.

Nations and States as such, being like living entities on a large scale, they have their own Karma etc. For instance if you look at the USA, you can see all sorts of things. If you look in Europe, you will see 'stricter' Karma, or India, which is why the Jews want to dilute and destroy these people a lot. This makes the Jews scared, as Karma and a good Karma generates positive outcomes of a metaphysical, and physically uncontrollable nature. You can't really predict this. This has to do with the power of consciousness to materialize into the physical, conditions that represent it. The Jews want to abolish this, which is called witchcraft, but witchcraft is actually part of nature and it happens in many ways, not only a specific one.

But if you wipe out the bearer of it, the man, this will also be abolished. This is why the Jews don't tell anyone to advance in anyway spiritually. The war against Satan is purposeful. Satan is TRUTH. TRUTH in Greek means MEMORY. Memory means KARMA. This very Soul Memory that ties us to the Gods and our Ancestors, cannot really be understood with a deep meaning, except of bizarre 'theorems' or empty crap, or be forgotten completely. This makes the Jews laugh and feel they are approaching their own 'karmic purpose' which they have set as a goal- to enslave others. Don't ask me why. That's how the Jews see it.

First of all, your advancement 'saves' your family or even lot in a sense, and your ancestral line from all this recurring spiritual damage that many people have 'inherited'. This is in the astral body, and this passes down to children, who stand chances to no longer experience the negative karma such as bad health the ancestors have sown. Of course this is not always intentional. In that sense, nobody is a 'victim' of anything deep down, as we belong as links without disconnection to our racial lines and the list goes.

Its our duty and its on our 'consciousness' to fix these up, so that the next one's will have it better, and the list goes endless, until a final product of man is produced that we presently cannot even conceive. Those who do more work, are better. Those who do less, are worse. This is why the Gods gave spiritual knowledge to ALL Gentiles. That way the Gods are JUST and from there on, its our own business as creatures to see what we will do with this knowledge. Apply, or deny and rot?

This is the Godman, like Satan and the Gods. In that sense, all Races of Humanity need to reach that status, so that Humanity can advance towards the next level. This is done through the metaphysical means Satan and the Gods left behind, and not by injecting hormones or hooking internet chips in your brain. This is in fact a karma of dependency, and inferior, and not a karma where the real secrets of life have been unlocked and given freely to humanity.

In a more gruesome sense, the jews are like a race of damaged, extremely race mixed, alien modified creatures. As such due to incapability to exist on their own, the ride the White men like parasites, so they exploit the White Man's Karma, that produced things like good civilizations, health, civilization and the list goes- the jews could never make this on their own, as they are not on any such level of development. Other Gentiles of course are great in this department, while others are learning, but the thing is for the jew, who is an alien enemy, to be revealed.

The jews are robbing the Karma of the Gentiles to advance themselves. For example, they have drained Africa completely financially, and mixed the Karma of the Black people with the White people forcibly, by creating not only Race Mixing, but many other works of insanity. These are extreme crimes and all higher beings who see this will not see it favourably. The Gods see it with hatred, as this goes against the will of Nature to advance its blueprints. The jews are accursed from nature for that reason, amongst many others. In the jewish tribe one sees mistakes, psychopathy, and disgust that is amassed for centuries. It didn't happen yesterday. Of course by masking, exploiting Gentile scientific advances, stealing, robbing, confusing and degradation of their 'enemy stock' the jews hope that just in time they will steal from us the necessary advances in order to become better, and dump us with it. This is why they live amongst us.

So as to get back to mass Karma, mass Karma is no different than how everyone has a Pluto, a Neptune and their generational planets or setups. Everyone has influences by these, and these are large. One powerful enough, can pierce through this, and create their individual life, or change this order. This is what we have been doing. In technical terms we are washing away of Humanity the inflicted karma caused by the enemy, and this will manifest also in a better world. This is the real meaning of the "Darkness" which will be defeated by the Light. The climax of Karma is where people control everything based on their true will, and not low animalistic rules of the cosmos. And by true will, I mean in the highest accordance with Satyan, Eternal Truth. Not rabbi shekelstein's new book that masquerades as 'tru theory'.

In closing, spiritually speaking, loving one's people, wanting to preserve them, looking for a better future for them etc, is all very healthy and natural tendency, with deeply rooted spiritual foundations that deal with the purpose of existence as well. Again, this is not always verbal, and SATANISM is the exact religion of understanding this. This is why it is open to all Gentiles, so that everyone can reclaim the lost crown of freedom for themselves, those worthwhile, and in the end, so that everything else will be raised due to this massive, spiritual awakening.

Like the individual spirit transforms, so does the massive spirit. This is the most direct way to save "humanity", more than being vegan, going to church, or giving 6 trillion $$$ to Shlomo Shekelstein for his campaign of "Tikkun Olam". To save one's self is the major step in saving the world. As thus the ripped-off story of Jewsus being saviour and rupturing others, deals to that, and we are again looking as OSIRIS - the bringer of the Light and defeater of Death. Only, not a jew ripped from Osiris holds the key to personal, or massive karma absolvance.

Only Work, spiritual ascension and spiritual labour, rewarded by the universe, do this. This way humanity can be saved massively from decay.

So help yourself.
