

Happy Holidays & World War 3

High Priest Hooded Cobra 666

September 22, 2022

First of all, I want to tell everyone happy holidays for today, and to always remain Satanic, strong, aware, and spiritual. Remember that we are eternal and so are the Gods, and to always strive forward for your goals. Happy Autumn Equinox.

Looking at the recent events, everyone here should understand why the latest schedule was issued. We have to do what we have to do.

Planetary energies have since 2021 pointed to the eventuality of major wars, but also, pandemic. The latter happened, the first has not occurred.

If you see in the schedule, I highlighted specific days.

If you watched the news with Putin, the United Nations, the FED and FOMC, and so on in the USA [bad news short term, good long term], Europe was informed about energy "problems", etc, you know why I highlighted these days now.

Do participate please. Gotta avoid. Thanks.

Recently, the Queen of England died. Many "conspiracy theorists" have also mentioned that this is a "key event" for future actions by the enemy.

I have to add here, the whole situation is nothing but a large Ritual that takes place from the enemy, who tries to use this at their advantage. They are "timing" events as per usual. We know their mode of operation.

In regards to "how we got here", we have to laugh out loud at this too. For a 0,001% death rate virus, the US and other economies were brought to their knees because of printing infinite money, which mostly accumulated itself from the rich, who later on pulled out of the stock market, leaving the masses in more and more debt.

I have related to you in previous topics the events exactly as they unfolded. Some things months and years in advance, such as the Market and how it would go as early as November 2021.

First, economic destabilization, which would cause financial woes worldwide because of the new new flu, and then, Nations who would start picking wars on each other. The latter is happening now, approximately one year later.

Every generation has its challenges and things to overcome. We have become collectively too stupid. This is the price to pay.

We Satanists will be fine through all this, but about the world, they are opening Pandora's box again. We are not responsible for this. We are trying to help if anything by doing the Rituals and so on.

Even our personal meditative work as individuals, helps to bring spiritual light into this world that desperately needs it. Yet, most of the world remains decisively blind. And there is a price to pay. We cannot pay this price in full even if we wanted to. We can only help to an important extent.

Albeit, certain people like Adolf Hitler have warned the world about the aims and purposes of the enemy, the world still tolerated them to be the ticks that rule them. The world, as always, focused on the unimportant things of this, such as what the Jews said. They didn't look at reality.

He told everyone that they were the enemies of humanity, and that they are bloodthirsty and evil. Almost nobody listened because Jews lied about him and called him "Evil", no different than Satan, who warned us all and gave us the spiritual knowledge to advance.

Now, we live in the reality he predicted. They bring us before WW3 and nobody really knows 'why'. The bill from the muh virus is on the trillions, global financial woes, certain countries faced with famine and so on, so forth.

Most Nations will fare fine here, but we have to be alert during these times.

People are told this is all coincidence, but everyone here knows it's all planned by the enemy. They are trying their best. We know, and we do not deserve anything that comes as a group. Therefore, the Gods give us protection and Rituals so that we will be fine in our own terms and within the confines of metaphysical laws.

But the society is not exempt from this. 80 years after Hitler, they gradually gathered power physically and spiritually, and with the slaves worshipping their programs and consuming their mind-washing, they are trying to manifest their longterm dreams of world annihilation and domination.

Certain people still might doubt the JoS, but the Joy of Satan has said the Truth all of these years, and YEARS in advance.

Yet, many idiots still wonder. Doubt it if you will, but all the Joy of Satan says is the one and only Truth of the matter.

Humanity might temporarily escape and feel uneasy, due to discomfort of realizing its own mistakes, but the outcome will be what the Truth has mentioned.

We have not dealt with the issue of the enemy. They have gained a lot of power. But they are pushing because they are losing it, and to consolidate it before it's too late for them. Therefore, chaos ensues. But chaos is necessary for change.

If it all happened from the backdoor, which they tried, all would be lost.

What is even worse, they have related their whole plans, from Klaus Schwab and his gang, all the way to the first jews who wrote the "Revelations" that speak about mass genocide.

In the end, these will not succeed, but the chances are rising and rising the more people are oblivious and willingly so. When civilizations become so oblivious, and they allow jews in power, this is what jews do.

If anyone saw Putin's latest speech, this rings the bell for readiness for WW3. When people hear about WW3, they think it will all burn, but this likely won't be the case. What will happen is however great instability. The extent of this might range from regular combat, all the way to greater levels of war.

SS will be protected through any of these events, even if they happen or not. But one must not abuse their chances. Do your meditations as the Gods have instructed and focus on your life.

Because the Joy of Satan members are from many locales and regions worldwide, there cannot be a singular line of approach here.

If you live in New Zealand with your parents, you will likely be fine. But if you live in Russia and you might get drafted, it's important to prepare and position accordingly.

In my opinion, you must do ANYTHING to NOT get drafted, except of actions that might lead to prison. If you are drafted, go for positions that are not frontline. We know we can fight wars.

But the important thing now is to LIVE FOR SATAN AND THE GODS, AND THE FUTURE. Do not die for the games of the enemy, no matter how much one wants to jump on the guns to defend their Nation, do not fall into this emotional trap at this point.

The leadership of these Nations does not work to serve any of us, but rather, the agenda of the enemy.

No matter what happens, most civilians will also be fine. But the situation is not looking well for the general gist of things.

If you are in the military as quite a number of our own are, start doing x3 times the protection you do daily and clean thoroughly every single day. Do NOT ignore this advice.

The world is currently in difficult times. Difficult does not mean "it's over" or anything like this, it just means difficult or uncertain. It means the stronger of mind will become stronger, while the "average" person will start having meltdowns over believing in lies for too long.

We do not have that problem whatsoever here. We are calm, aware and resolute.

Lastly, the New Rituals which will be up now will sustain and support emotionally and in the spiritual level so everyone not only pulls through, putting the hand of the Gods on everyone, but that we grow from this patch of human history.

Think positively, and always do your best.

May the Gods be with us all and the Joy of Satan,

HAIL SATAN!!!!
