

We Are Progressing: Judenpresse Exposed on Coronavirus

The Jew constantly tells people to "Not Panic" in the news, while essentially this means in reality nothing, and in Jewish lingo, that means for the Goyim, "DO NOT PREPARE" for a disaster. Jews on the other hand, are prepared to the teeth.

To give one example, synagogues in the United States have personal guards, who are armed to the teeth, and the same goes for Jewish Communities. On the other hand, especially the Jews in the Democratic party, always preach for the goyim to give back their guns. Of course, the Jews will claim "Persecuted Status" [in their mind it was real goyim, 60 billion victims just in their mind], and keep their own guns.

Jews love it when the Goyim are hit with unprecedented disasters while they are oblivious, as this maximizes the damage people receive, but also how dependent and helpless people are. When one is helpless, they raise their hand to the Jew for help, and the Jew enslaves them or destroys them. Many poor countries that had bad mismanaging done by Jews, or bad policies, or other disasters, the innocent and the citizens have paid the full price. Also, most of this is thrown upon the innocent.

One such example is how the Jew almost got to extinct Europe through the Middle Ages, by the bubonic plague. The only people that effectively were able to survive were the lucky ones, and people who had any semblance of remote knowledge of medicine.

The Christian church and Jews were safe, as they had access and they had depicted medical advice from the Ancient Greek schools, which taught elaborate instructions and medicines to stay safe, such as for example, to not contact a corpse, touch contamination sites etc. This allowed the Jew and his cohorts to survive. The rest of the people [Two Thirds of the European population] perished like dogs. Later it was claimed that it was the Jews who threw the infected corpses into rivers and water supply, and therefore, the water became contaminated and the spread became exponential.

For example, China went to its knees financially by this virus, but we are told it has a low mortality rate and that it's going to be OK. Sure, if we are to assume that is the case, then China went simply overboard because they are stupid? Clearly this is not the case and the situation is far more complex. When they were given all the signs and knew since late November about the Coronavirus, they "Did not panic" and they "Did not prepare". They didn't care, and wanted to cover it up, as is the usual thing to happen in Communist regimes.

The thing that Communist regimes cannot stand is being questioned, which has already begun in China because of its treatment, business practices, and handling of the Hong Kong situation. Local revolts were also a thing. And all of a sudden, a virus cracks down and all dissent is completely gone from the country. Who knows how many dissenters were killed on the pretext that they had "Coronavirus"? We will probably never get to know. Brave medical officials also opened their mouths to reveal data and they are also gone.

China could have just said the TRUTH, and nobody would have had a moral problem. Indeed, if they cared back in November, maybe the world could launch units to have cleaned this mess a long time ago. But of course, they wouldn't.

Communism relies on the idea that you have to reach the ideal "Communist State", which is in modern terms a super citizen enslaving megastate, practices which would fill most people with revulsion if they got to know about it. Therefore China had to shut up and hope for the best.

If their Communist officials gave as little as one dime over the life of their citizens, they would have panicked and therefore done something to pre-emptively stop the disaster. But Communism implies that the existence of people really has no value other than it's a stepping stone to another end, in the given case, the end of creating a Communist utopia that serves the 0,01% of the Chinese Communist party at the top and all their excessive needs.

Communists always have been lying, like xianity and Islam, that all of this is for good reason and for "Humanity". Under them, the human value has lost all its value. People are worked to death for one dollar per day, and in regards to the treatment of life under these regimes, we can see. In regards to the quality of life, and health, and provisions were taken, we saw that also. The reduction of human beings doesn't get lower than this.

Here is an example that another SS posted in regard to how people are treated in these regimes. They are kept caged in their own homes, some not even having food or living supplies. But who cares, right? On the other hand, the Communist party as intel reveals sent very plenty to people aligned with it so they can get by. But the regular citizens, one can observe here. People who called them out, and their families too, were slaughtered.

Now, the Global community would definitely understand some mistakes, but these are not mistakes. This is applied Communism for the masses to see.

If this situation is not serious and it's only just a stupid flu, why has Israel essentially self-quarantined? Why has Israel had "Coincidentally" a vaccine almost ready? Why has Israel been taking extreme measures over a couple of infections, while Jews in the West tell us it's all a little random flu and nothing to worry about, while essentially, China literally went into a mode of chaos that has cost immensely to their economy and almost brought them to their knees completely?

Why were Wall Street observers crying in the offices from the falls and small meltdowns that have been so striking?

Another thing the Judenpresse living virus did was this: Advertise Coronavirus all day long, tell people to be open on it [sort of like one has to be open to invading hordes that are there to replace you or something which is in (((Fashion))) nowadays], and then of course, "embrace the virus".

Because it's a random flu right? Well, whatever it is, this isn't a normal flu. And were it a normal flu as the Jews claim to hide their shit, they advertised it to where it became a global crisis on its own.

This throws in the open many things:

Jews can start false hype overlying and deception that can literally make the world go bankrupt in a few days.

They love to be giving negative, deathly advice to people.

Being prepared or caring about your family etc enrages the Jew.

And of course, the Jews are always not following the bullshit they say to the Goyim to follow. One of these things the Jews follow is that the Jews practice preparation. The Jew isn't going to wait in Europe until it's half Muslim, they will have evacuated before the twilight hits, and even if it doesn't, it's ok, because the risk is enough as it is.

On the contrary, Gentiles are constantly told to never care about things and never care about themselves or their families or even loved ones.

This is no different than the refugee crisis. As it's the case with Israel, they have this huge wall protecting themselves. To all other countries, they have Communist NGOs, Judenpresse, and basically Rabbis in politics and academia telling people to drop down all borders and "Embrace" the incoming waves. When it comes to the Goyim Nations, they are all cattle and all the same, and therefore, "Refugees are good" and taking the maximum amount in until someone is replaced is a good and moral thing to do.

The Jew however will not be taking any of course. Israel will not be taking any of course and also carries a genocide plan against whatever was living amongst them that was a non Jew. Palestinians have been almost wiped out from the land that was stolen from them.

Needless to say, we are all being lied to about the Coronavirus. Yes, I have written about fear and chaos before and how this may worsen the situation and make it worse than it is. People panicked and many more will panic.

Lastly, it doesn't matter how big or small this virus is. The ramifications are already there. Estimates state that this has created anywhere from a 1 trillion to 5 trillion sinkhole in the global and Chinese economy. We have the Jews to thank for that. Jews do shit like this to ward off attention from them. The other method they do is that when the world becomes too aware, they are attempting to start wars.

Don't forget they almost tried to pull Trump to attack Iran a few weeks ago. Now, all of a sudden, a virus that has Israel "Fully prepared" and didn't really even touch them [we could be lied to, but look at Iran which is starting to be devastated by the virus], broke out.

On the other hand, the backfire on the Jewish MSM, the Jewish agenda, the awareness of Communism and its methods and how they turn human beings such as in China, and how really countries that are built on fear are only giants with feet of clay, are revealing. One point was reached in America when the Jews literally kvetched on Trump because he did not want an unnecessary pandemic in his home country. We could go on and on.

Yes, The United States and no other country, definitely does NOT need Coronavirus. It's almost as if Trump has to repent for saying that the United States doesn't need to be at risk of a pandemic or something.

This is the same irrational shit as they put people to repent and be sorry over their refusal to be replaced in their own homeland forever. And the same shit where they try to guilt-trip Satanic Pagans for centuries that our ancestral religion is somehow wrong, while it is all proper, healthy, correct, and good.

As it's evident, the enemy is getting seriously exposed. Plus, everyone here now has a better idea of how to be prepared and to keep themselves safer in the future.

In regards to public awareness, this has a lot to do with the Crown Chakra, called Korona in Ancient Greek. The "Corona Virus" was such a stupid name to pick for such a virus. It could be called anything else, for example, as it's the case with many viruses whose name is based on symptoms produced.

Instead, this disgusting name was picked for the Virus, and the Crown Chakra deals with the consciousness, which is necessary for humanity waking up. If we want to get even more obscurely into that, it is the Serpent on the Crown, the Sat, that causes the opening of the awareness of the mind. A fear of the Corona - Virus, what kind of word games are jews playing again?

The Crown Chakra, symbolic of the awareness of humanity, is starting to open up, and there is no "Corona-Virus" lingo and strange bullshit spells that can affect that. There is no going back. The Gentiles know that we have been deceived.

Look at yet another manifestation of the RTR - Jews got a crackdown and are revealed for their crimes. This was posted by another SS. The Jews are throwing other Jews under the bus, as they did with Epstein and Wienstein - How Jewish American pedophiles hide from justice in Israel:

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=unPXNF1kND8&feature=youtu.be>

To make the long story short, Jews know that Satan will take his vengeance. They understand this on an unconscious level. Throwing their own under the bus, is a form of trying to amend for the crimes they have committed against humanity and seek better treatment. Meanwhile, this shows how reptilian they are and how little is their hesitation to backstab their own.

Have courage fellow Satanists, we are doing unprecedented damage to the enemy. Beneath all this fog and all this chaos, these are fertile times for our victory. Stay strong, stay safe, stay vigilant, we go ever forward.

HAIL SATAN!!!
