Reverse Torah Ritual Schedule 6th of February to 18th of February

Greetings to all of our Satanic Comrades and Warriors in Satan.

The Shema RTR should be treated from now on as a primer. We will just use to shred the enemy's defenses before an attack. Then, the other RTR's will be allowed to easily pass through, empowered as a result. The Shema doesn't even take much time to do at all, so it's very quick; it's one of the smallest RTR's we have ever done. Once one gets the hang of it it can literally take less than 10 minutes to do. One can also do this in the morning or at least once a day, and then proceed with the schedule.

The idea is to keep reciting it. The enemy recites rituals many times more time consuming, not once, but three times daily. This trains them on how to execute these way more efficiently. Many reach a point where they can effortlessly curse for hours upon hours. Obsessively and mentally ill as they are, we don't seek to become like 'them', but if you see the meaning here is, that one must grow competitive since we want to achieve success here. You don't need a lot of time like these parasites, but you need to do the rituals and follow a constant, so to say.

By virtue of the planets, the 16 of February is a very strong date for us and Satanic energy in general due to planetary lineups. This date must be exploited to the fullest so I have set it on bold.

The release of the schedule and the shortness of text is to make the work of translators easier.

Aside this, to increase our RTR power output and to train people in new abilities, here is a post explaining some things people need to understand:
