

Spiritual Warfare Schedule Oct 31 to Nov 10 - And on the Elections

First of all I wish everyone the happiest Halloween.

With heightening attacks from the enemy in regards to the freedoms of humanity, it becomes mandatory that we hold for once more the spiritual backbone of Gentiles worldwide.

The enemy is clearly using this epidemic, insisting that it is a pandemic, to ruin the freedoms of mankind worldwide. Steadily so, they are using this as an excuse to destroy the middle class, destroy small businesses, cause workers insurmountable financial woes, and also practice all sorts of other attacks that will lead them to a conclusive end they have decided a long time ago.

Those of you who are reading the news, you are seeing that central banks and other institutions, are attempting to create digital currency. Digital currency in itself, is not good nor bad, anymore than printed random money. Much of the financial reality of the world is already digital [stock market, macro-economy], and is not based on labor or realistic value of anything or any good or service.

The full manifestation of this will however, will be probably be launched as a saving recipe from a financial crashing of the backbone of all the financial categories mentioned above - "Accept our digital currencies so that you are saved", type of thing, "Redefining Finances to save the world" as another thing. There is an increasing disconnect between the real and the fake economy, and what people have to actually spend or what people are making VS what virtual money exists.

With the Co-Vid craze it was apparent how the enemy started hating on material money, because it still can provide some sort of semblance of security and privacy when it comes to transactions, away from the control of the enemy, which is already very vast.

When it comes to digital currencies, not all are made alike, obviously. Some are made in a person to person fashion, and powered by the belief of people in their value. There is no unanimous ruler to these transactions. The digital currencies the enemy is creating, are only going to exist to expand their already existing system of control, and to fully digitize it, to the point none of this will be able to be monitored or be for real. Most people who are not deeply inside the system do not even have an access to verify what is going on in the value setting power of this system. This will give them direct power and authority to exercise monetary control beyond more than any other age.

On the other hand there are coming new currencies and systems of transactions which can, if not delay the enemy, cause them a considerable hole in their dominance for the wealth of the world. The very same thing they need to take over, is the very same thing that is going to be a major problem for them.

The last level of this is that they want to merge this system with the biological body of a human being, in a direct fashion, in other words a microchip wallet. The world and planets are moving into radical redirection of the financial system of the world.

Government tyranny is rising and this should be apparent through all this Co-Vid situation. All of this is a lengthy, shadowy, manifestation of subversive power, and a slow move towards the Chinese Communism model. The elections of the United States are already mirroring this reality.

At this point, people are going to be locked in and going out whenever the enemy dictates based on largely deceitful and unrealistic data. Despite of the reality of the pandemic or epidemic situation, the power struggle remains as is, and the enemy's plan remains the same. However, the basis of all this supposedly remains, in the mind of the masses, the so called "pandemic". It was this that triggered the barrage of other power games. All of that has been exposed.

Many people who believe in this are called "Conspiracy theorists", but the reality is only in front of us. The data is debatable, and most of it cannot uphold any such extreme measures any longer. Despite of the issue existing, there are many who are trying to exploit the situation to promote other measures - for the future of control of mankind.

As time goes, those who are willing to accept the lie that all what is happening now, is based on the "Co-Vid", only does so willingly, and because they are comfortable with this interpretation. There is no real link between the Co-Vid and most of the suppressive measures taking place.

Most measures like this, have nothing to do with the spread or prolonging of the so called "Pandemic". Data is starting to show that there is nothing worrisome about the situation, and despite that, the enemy intensifies measures and continues on the same pattern, as if this was the Black Plague.

The current US elections are a reflection of this passage that the world is undergoing right now. There is serious risk of election ballot meddling in the United States. The two figures, represent a different route for the Western and Developed world. Trump represents in this case the turning of the situation in an epidemic, while Biden represents the dictatorship of "Science", which at this point, has largely failed to support the belief that all these measures of financial, fiscal, governmental, and civil destruction are required to uphold for the so called "Co-Vid".

Regardless of the US election outcome, many Nations are already proceeding with even harder measures and quarantines. But the US election will definitely affect the rest of this and how long this situation escalates about. Also, mandatory or not vaccination and many other agendas are going to be on the table for now and next year.

In regards to the vaccination there is a limit to what one can and cannot say in any platform. "Medical Advice". I'll just focus on the political subject of this. The fact that people are forced on the needle on the exchange of all their freedoms, for a virus that has a mortality rate as low, should be alarming to any well thinking individual.

Many of our own here have been diagnosed [and misdiagnosed too] with Co-Vid, and made it out fine, and no different than displaying symptoms similar to the flu or a bad flu. Others have passed it even lighter.

The clear line between scientific data and scientific interpretation is still ongoing, yet, at the same time, the enemy's purpose is clear as per usual: The enemy wants to destroy this world entirely, and make us all into a Communist dictatorship from which there will be no escape.

Always, no matter what, they have the same plan. What happens is details. The moment something happens that they can promote into the very same drill, they will do it. This is typical of them.

This is not debatable and not reliant upon the Co-Vid. Those who are older will understand this, what this world has been coming to since the so called "9/11" where mass surveillance, and popular control has since been rising, because the enemy is paranoid about the people waking up to them. As time goes, it will take total idiots and those who are entirely slaves and compliant to make the claim that this is all a "Coincidence" or "How things are supposed to be".

Lastly, as some may have noticed, the <http://www.joyofsatan.org> website is down today. The enemy has a habit for this and many years over, they have done attacks to us on Halloween. Hopefully, this should be resolved within the date. The pressure has been more and more intensive to keep everything going, and it will keep going despite of what the enemy thinks about the subject. Meanwhile, <http://www.satanisgod.org> can be used.

For the next 10 days, we need to be spamming the FRTR. Everyone must be doing this at the very least, once in their day. This is the minimum. This is to ensure that the elections and whatever fruit comes out of it, will be affected by us, and not solely by the enemy. This builds on the previous schedule.

We do only the Final RTR to focus all the momentum there. Soon also, there will be an additional update based on the Final RTR which we will utilize after the enemy's garbage has sufficiently dwindled [we are almost there]. We are going one step at a time.
